Song for opening the Sabbath School:

A Song of From the Book of Chapters Isaiah 43:1-2 Margins

O Israel, Fear not: for I have redeemed thee,
I have called [thee] by thy name; thou [art] mine.
When thou passest through the waters, I [will be] with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned.

Let's continue in our book Desire of Ages, Chapter #22, pages 223–224

To many minds a deep mystery surrounds the fate of John the Baptist. They question why he should have been left to languish and die in prison. The mystery of this dark providence our human vision cannot penetrate; but it can never shake our confidence in God when we remember that John was but a sharer in the sufferings of Christ. All who follow Christ will wear the crown of sacrifice. They will surely be misunderstood by selfish men, and will be made a mark for the fierce assaults of Satan. It is this principle of self-sacrifice that his kingdom is established to destroy, and he will war against it wherever manifested. {DA 223.4}

Question: Why is it that to many minds a deep mystery surrounds the fate of John the Baptist?

Answer: They question why he should have been left to languish and die in prison.

The childhood, youth, and manhood of John had been characterized by firmness and moral power. When his voice was heard in the wilderness saying, "Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make His paths straight" (Matthew 3:3), Satan feared for the safety of his kingdom. The sinfulness of sin was revealed in such a manner that men trembled. Satan's power over many who had been under his control was broken. He had been unwearied in his efforts to draw away the Baptist from a life of unreserved surrender to God; but he had failed. And he had failed to overcome Jesus. In the temptation in the wilderness, Satan had been defeated, and his rage was great. Now he determined to bring sorrow upon Christ by striking John. The One whom he could not entice to sin he would cause to suffer. {DA 224.1}

Question: What was John's childhood, youth, and manhood characterized by? And, how was Satan's great rage manifested after having been defeated in the temptation in the wilderness?

Answer: Firmness and moral power. And, he determined to bring sorrow upon Christ by striking John. The One whom he could not entice to sin he would cause to suffer.

Jesus did not interpose to deliver His servant. He knew that John would bear the test. Gladly would the Saviour have come to John, to brighten the dungeon gloom with His own presence. But He was not to place Himself in the hands of enemies and imperil His own mission. Gladly would He have delivered His faithful servant. But for the sake of thousands who in after years must pass from prison to death, John was to drink the cup of martyrdom. As the followers of Jesus should languish in lonely cells, or perish by the sword, the rack, or the fagot, apparently forsaken by God and man, what a stay to their hearts would be the thought that John the Baptist, to whose faithfulness Christ Himself had borne witness, had passed through a similar experience! {DA 224.2}

Question: Why didn't Jesus interpose to deliver His servant John? And, what other reasons were at stake if our Saviour would have interposed to deliver His faithful servant?

Answer: He knew that John would bear the test. And, He was not to place Himself in the hands of enemies and imperil His own mission, for the sake of thousands who in after years must pass from prison to death; John was to drink the cup of martyrdom.

Satan was permitted to cut short the earthly life of God's messenger; but that life which "is hid with Christ in God," the destroyer could not reach. Colossians 3:3. He exulted that he had brought sorrow upon Christ, but he had failed of conquering John. Death itself only placed him forever beyond the power of temptation. In this warfare, Satan was revealing his own character. Before the witnessing universe he made manifest his enmity toward God and man. {DA 224.3}

Song: Let's learn a beautiful scripture song dear one from the book of Colossians, together!

Colossians 3:1-3 (KJV)

If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

(4 x) For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

(2 x) When Christ, [who is] our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory.

(4 x) For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

Question: What life in God's messenger, could Satan not destroy or reach? And in this warfare, what was Satan revealing to the universe?

Answer: That life which "is hid with Christ in God," the destroyer could not reach. And his own character before the witnessing universe he made manifest his enmity toward God and man.

Though no miraculous deliverance was granted John, he was not forsaken. He had always the companionship of heavenly angels, who opened to him the prophecies concerning Christ, and the precious promises of Scripture. These were his stay, as they were to be the stay of God's people through the coming ages. To John the Baptist, as to those that came after him, was given the assurance, "Lo, I am with you alway, [even] unto the end of the world. Amen."

Matthew 28:20, margin. {DA 224.4}

Question: Was John forsaken though no miraculous deliverance was granted?

Answer: No! He had always the companionship of heavenly angels, who opened to him the prophecies concerning Christ, and the precious promises of Scripture.

God never leads His children otherwise than they would choose to be led, if they could see the end from the beginning, and discern the glory of the purpose which they are fulfilling as co-workers with Him. Not Enoch, who was translated to heaven, not Elijah, who ascended in a chariot of fire, was greater or more honored than John the Baptist, who perished alone in the dungeon. "Unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on Him, but also to suffer for His sake." Philippians 1:29. And of all the gifts that Heaven can bestow upon men, fellowship with Christ in His sufferings is the most weighty trust and the highest honor. {DA 224.5}

Song: Let's learn another scripture song dear ones from the book of Proverbs, together!

Proverbs 20:11 (KJV)

(3 x) Even a child is known by his doings, whether his work [be] pure, and whether [it be] right.

It's Story Time!

Our book selection this Sabbath is entitle, “Sons and Daughters of God”

Chapter 1-He is the Embodiment of Truth

Narrated by our dear Brother Graves!

To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice. John 18:37. {SD 26.1}

Christ's conscious superiority, even as He descended step by step in the path of humiliation, gave His words an amazing power. What lessons of instruction He gave, and with what authority He rebuked the sins of men in high position. Truth was truth to Him, and it never suffered in His hands; for He was the author of truth. "To this end," He says, "was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth." . . . He was the embodiment of truth and holiness. He who had stood in the councils of God, who had dwelt in the innermost sanctuary of the Eternal, was speaking that whereof He knew....But the men who claimed to stand high in knowledge and spiritual understanding failed to comprehend His meaning; and that which had been evolved from eternity by the Father and the Son, they in their ignorance stood as critics to condemn. {SD 26.2}

Christ crucified is ever drawing souls to Him. On the other hand, Satan is drawing them away from Christ, that they may not walk in the light of His countenance, that they may not see Christ in His goodness and mercy, His infinite compassion and unsurpassed love. He intercepts himself by presenting the attractions of worldly inducements, that God in Christ may not be discerned. But Christ came that whosoever will believe in Him may be saved. As a flower turns to the sun that its bright rays may aid in perfecting its beauty and symmetry, so should Christ's followers turn to the Sun of Righteousness, that heaven's light may shine upon them, perfecting their characters, and giving them a deep and abiding experience in the things of God. It is beyond our power to conceive the blessings that are brought within our reach through Christ, if we will but unite our human effort with divine grace. {SD 26.3}

Next Week We will begin a new chapter entitles, “The Kingdom of God Is at Hand” in our lesson book Desire of Ages!

Closing Prayer – request one of the little ones or mommies or daddies to give prayer.

Next Sabbath: Chapter 23 “The Kingdom of God Is at Hand”, Sabbath January 17, 2015.

Have a Blessed Sabbath dear one, and enjoy your activities. God Bless!
