

Children Sabbath School Lesson #116 for 2-21-2015
Song for opening the Sabbath School:

A Song of From the Book of Chapters Jude 1:24-25

Now unto him that is able to keep, able to keep you from falling and to present [you] faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy,
To the only wise God our Saviour,
[be] glory and majesty, dominion and power,
both now and for ever. Amen.

Lesson #116: “Is Not This the Carpenter's Son?” Part 3

Isaiah 61:2 (KJV)

To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn;

This week boys and girls, we will continue with part 3 in our lesson entitle,
“Is Not This the Carpenter's Son?” of our study book!

Micah 7:18 (KJV)

Who [is] a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth [in] mercy.

Luke 4:29 (KJV)

And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong.

Luke 4:30 (KJV)

But he passing through the midst of them went his way,

Luke 4:31(KJV)

And came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the sabbath days.

Luke 4:32 (KJV)

And they were astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with power.

Psalms 91:9 (KJV)

Because thou hast made the LORD, [which is] my refuge, [even] the most High, thy habitation;

Psalms 91:10 (KJV)

There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

Psalms 91:11 (KJV)

For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

Psalms 91:12 (KJV)

They shall bear thee up in [their] hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Let's continue in our book Desire of Ages, Chapter #24, page 239 - 241

The words of Jesus to His hearers in the synagogue struck at the root of their self-righteousness, pressing home upon them the bitter truth that they had departed from God and forfeited their claim to be His people. Every word cut like a knife as their real condition was set before them. They now scorned the faith with which Jesus had at first inspired them. They would not admit that He who had sprung from poverty and lowliness was other than a common man. {DA 239.3}

Their unbelief bred malice. Satan controlled them, and in wrath they cried out against the Saviour. They had turned from Him whose mission it was to heal and restore; now they manifested the attributes of the destroyer. {DA 239.4}

Question: Where did the words of Jesus strike His hearers in the synagogue? And how it felt?

Answer: It struck at the root of their self-righteousness, pressing home upon them the bitter truth that they had departed from God and forfeited their claim to be His people. And every word cut like a knife as their real condition was set before them.

When Jesus referred to the blessings given to the Gentiles, the fierce national pride of His hearers was aroused, and His words were drowned in a tumult of voices. These people had prided themselves on keeping the law; but now that their prejudices were offended, they were ready to commit murder. The assembly broke up, and laying hands upon Jesus, they thrust Him from the synagogue, and out of the city. All seemed eager for His destruction. They hurried Him to the brow of a precipice, intending to cast Him down headlong. Shouts and maledictions filled the air. Some were casting stones at Him, when suddenly He disappeared from among them. The heavenly messengers who had been by His side in the synagogue were with Him in the midst of that maddened throng. They shut Him in from His enemies, and conducted Him to a place of safety. {DA 240.1}

So angels protected Lot, and led him out safely from the midst of Sodom. So they protected Elisha in the little mountain city. When the encircling hills were filled with the horses and chariots of the king of Syria, and the great host of his armed men, Elisha beheld the nearer hill slopes covered with the armies of God,--horses and chariots of fire round about the servant of the Lord. {DA 240.2}

Question: How did the national pride of the Jewish people responded when Jesus referred to the blessing given to the Gentiles?

Answer: These people prejudices were offended, they were ready to commit murder. The assembly broke up, and laying hands upon Jesus, they thrust Him from the synagogue, and out of the city.

Song: Let's learn a beautiful scripture song dear one from the book of Isaiah together!

Isaiah 42:1-4 (KJV)

Behold my servant, whom I uphold; Behold my servant mine elect,
[in whom] my soul delighteth;

I have put my spirit upon him: he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles.

Behold my servant, whom I uphold

He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.

I have put my spirit upon him:

A bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench:
he shall bring forth judgment unto truth. I have put my spirit upon him:

He shall not fail nor be discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth:
and the isles shall wait for his law. I have put my spirit upon him:

Isaiah 42:1 through 4

Question: Whom were the protectors of Jesus and His faithful servants from their enemies, and conducting them to a place of safety?

Answer: The heavenly messengers who had been by His side in the synagogue were with Him in the midst of that maddened throng.

Psalms 143:9-11(KJV)

Deliver me, (2 xs) O LORD, from mine enemies:

I flee unto thee to hide me.

Teach me to do thy will; for thou [art] my God:
thy spirit [is] good; lead me into the land of uprightness.

(2 x) Quicken me, O LORD, for thy name's sake:

for thy righteousness' sake (I flee unto thee to hide me.) bring my soul out of trouble

Psalms 143 verses 9 through 11

So, in all ages, angels have been near to Christ's faithful followers. The vast confederacy of evil is arrayed against all who would overcome; but Christ would have us look to the things which are not seen, to the armies of heaven encamped about all who love God, to deliver them. From what dangers, seen and unseen, we have been preserved through the interposition of the angels, we shall never know, until in the light of eternity we see the providences of God. Then we shall know that the whole family of heaven was interested in the family here below, and that messengers from the throne of God attended our steps from day to day. {DA 240.3}

Question: Who have been near to Christ's faithful followers in all ages? And, what would Christ have us all look to, who would overcome from the vast confederacy of evil arrayed against?

Answer: Angels. And, Christ would have us look to the things which are not seen, to the armies of heaven encamped about all who love God, to deliver them.

When Jesus in the synagogue read from the prophecy, He stopped short of the final specification concerning the Messiah's work. Having read the words, "To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord," He omitted the phrase, "and the day of vengeance of our God." Isaiah 61:2. This was just as much truth as was the first of the prophecy, and by His silence Jesus did not deny the truth. But this last expression was that upon which His hearers delighted to dwell, and which they were desirous of fulfilling. They denounced judgments against the heathen, not discerning that their own guilt was even greater than that of others. They themselves were in deepest need of the mercy they were so ready to deny to the heathen. That day in the synagogue, when Jesus stood among them, was their opportunity to accept the call of Heaven. He who "delighteth in mercy" (Micah 7:18) would fain have saved them from the ruin which their sins were inviting. {DA 240.4}

Question: What phrase did Jesus omit when he read from the prophecy the words, "To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord?"

Answer: He omitted the phrase, "and the day of vengeance of our God." Isaiah 61:2. This was just as much truth as was the first of the prophecy, and by His silence Jesus did not deny the truth.

Not without one more call to repentance could He give them up. Toward the close of His ministry in Galilee, He again visited the home of His childhood. Since His rejection there, the fame of His preaching and His miracles had filled the land. None now could deny that He possessed more than human power. The people of Nazareth knew that He went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed by Satan. About them were whole villages where there was not a moan of sickness in any house; for He had passed through them, and healed all their sick. The mercy revealed in every act of His life testified to His divine anointing. {DA 241.1}

Song: *Let's learn a memory verse through song dear ones that teaches us how a child is known by its doings, from the book of Proverbs!

Proverbs 20:11 (KJV)

Even a child is known by his doings,
whether his work [be] pure, and whether [it be] right.

Proverbs 20:11

Even a child is known by his doings,
whether his work [be] pure, and whether [it be] right.

Proverbs 20:11

Even a child is known by his doings,
whether his work [be] pure, and whether [it be] right.

Proverbs 20:11

It's Story Time!

Our book selection this Sabbath is entitled, “Sons and Daughters of God”

Chapter 1- He Imparts the Fruit of the Spirit

Narrated by our dear Brother Graves!

For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth. Ephesians 5:9.
{SD 32.1}

Shall we consider that we are capable of fashioning our lives and characters to enter into the portals of glory? We cannot do it. We are dependent every moment upon the Spirit of God operating upon us and upon our children. {SD 32.2}

If parents would see a different state of things in their family, let them consecrate themselves wholly to God, and the Lord will devise ways and means whereby a transformation may take place in their households. {SD 32.3}

Your compassionate Redeemer is watching you in love and sympathy, ready to hear your prayers, and render you the assistance which you need in your life-work. Love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, faith and charity are the elements of the Christian character. These precious graces are the fruits of the Spirit. They are the Christian's crown and shield. . . . Nothing can give more perfect content and satisfaction. {SD 32.4}

As you receive the Spirit of Christ, . . . you will grow and bring forth fruit. The graces of the Spirit will ripen in your character. Your faith will increase, your convictions deepen, your love be made perfect. More and more you will reflect the likeness of Christ in all that is pure, noble, and lovely. . . . {SD 32.5}

This fruit can never perish, but will produce after its kind a harvest unto eternal life. {SD 32.6}

"When the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come." Christ is waiting with longing desire for the manifestation of Himself in His church. When the character of Christ shall be perfectly reproduced in His people, then He will come to claim them as His own. {SD 32.7}."

Next Week We will end with part 4 in our lesson book Desire of Ages entitled,
“Is Not This the Carpenter's Son?”

Closing Prayer – request one of the little ones or mommies or daddies to give prayer.

Next Sabbath: Chapter 24 “Is Not This the Carpenter's Son?” Sabbath February 28, 2015.

Have a Blessed Sabbath dear one, and enjoy your activities. God Bless!
