Lesson #119: “The Call by the Sea” Part 2

Matthew 4:18 (KJV)

And Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

*This week boys and girls, we will continue with part 2 of our lesson entitled,
“The Call by the Sea” of our study book Desire of Ages!*

Matthew 4:17 (KJV)

From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

Mathew 4:19 (KJV)

And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.

Luke 5:10 (KJV)

And so [was] also James, and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

Daniel 10:8 (KJV)

Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength.

Isaiah 6:5 (KJV)

Then said I, Woe [is] me! for I am undone; because I [am] a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts.

Romans 10:12 (KJV)

For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him.

Luke 6:38 (KJV)

Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again.

Ephesians 3:20 (KJV)

Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us,

Let's continue in our book Desire of Ages, Chapter #25, page 246 - 249

It was the same presence of divine holiness that had caused the prophet Daniel to fall as one dead before the angel of God. He said, "My comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength." So when Isaiah beheld the glory of the Lord, he exclaimed, "Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts." Daniel 10:8; Isaiah 6:5. Humanity, with its weakness and sin, was brought in contrast with the perfection of divinity, and he felt altogether deficient and unholy. Thus it has been with all who have been granted a view of God's greatness and majesty. {DA 246.3}

Peter exclaimed, "Depart from me; for I am a sinful man;" yet he clung to the feet of Jesus, feeling that he could not be parted from Him. The Saviour answered, "Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men." It was after Isaiah had beheld the holiness of God and his own unworthiness that he was entrusted with the divine message. It was after Peter had been led to self-renunciation and dependence upon divine power that he received the call to his work for Christ. {DA 246.4}

Question: How has it been with all who have been granted a view of God's greatness and majesty? And what did the Saviour answer Peter after feeling that he could not be parted from Him?

Answer: Its weakness and sin, when brought in contrast with the perfection of divinity, they had felt altogether deficient and unholy. And, "Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men."

Song: Let's learn a beautiful scripture song dear one from the book of Isaiah, which left for us!

Isaiah 41:10 (KJV)

Fear thou not; for I [am] with thee: be not dismayed;
for I [am] thy God:
I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea,
I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.

Until this time none of the disciples had fully united as colaborers with Jesus. They had witnessed many of His miracles, and had listened to His teaching; but they had not entirely forsaken their former employment. The imprisonment of John the Baptist had been to them all a bitter disappointment. If such were to be the outcome of John's mission, they could have little hope for their Master, with all the religious leaders combined against Him. Under the circumstances it was a relief to them to return for a short time to their fishing. But now Jesus called them to forsake their former life, and unite their interests with His. Peter had accepted the call. Upon reaching the shore, Jesus bade the three other disciples, "Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men." Immediately they left all, and followed Him. {DA 246.5}

Question: Did the disciples fully united as colaborers with Jesus entirely forsaking their former employment? And, how Jesus called them to forsake their former life, and unite their interests with His?

Answer: No! The imprisonment of John the Baptist had been to them all a bitter disappointment and the outcome of John's mission, they could have little hope for their Master, with all the religious leaders combined against Him. And, Jesus bade them, "Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men."

Song: Let's lean a beautiful song entitle, "I Will Make you Fishers of Men" together dear one!

"I Will Make You Fishers of Men"
I will make you fishers of men, Fishers of men, fishers of men. I will make you fishers of men, If you follow Me.	Hear Christ calling "Come unto Me Come unto Me, Come unto Me." Hear Christ calling "Come unto Me I will give You rest."
If you follow Me, If you follow Me, I will make you fishers of men, If you follow Me.	"I will give you rest. I will give you rest. Hear Christ calling "Come unto Me I will give You rest

Before asking them to leave their nets and fishing boats, Jesus had given them the assurance that God would supply their needs. The use of Peter's boat for the work of the gospel had been richly repaid. He who is "rich unto all that call upon Him," has said, "Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over." Romans 10:12; Luke 6:38. In this measure He had rewarded the disciple's service. And every sacrifice that is made in His ministry will be recompensed according to "the exceeding riches of His grace." Ephesians 3:20; 2:7. {DA 249.1}

Question: How had Jesus given them the assurance that God would supply their needs? And how does He reward His disciple's service?

Answer: He stated that, who is "rich unto all that call upon Him," has said, "Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over." And every sacrifice that is made in His ministry will be recompensed according to "the exceeding riches of His grace."

Song: Let's learn one more scripture song dear ones from the book of Ephesians!

Ephesians 3:20 (KJV) Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, Unto him [be] glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

During that sad night on the lake, when they were separated from Christ, the disciples were pressed hard by unbelief, and weary with fruitless toil. But His presence kindled their faith, and brought them joy and success. So it is with us; apart from Christ, our work is fruitless, and it is easy to distrust and murmur. But when He is near, and we labor under His direction, we rejoice in the evidence of His power. It is Satan's work to discourage the soul; it is Christ's work to inspire with faith and hope. {DA 249.2}

The deeper lesson which the miracle conveyed for the disciples is a lesson for us also,-- that He whose word could gather the fishes from the sea could also impress human hearts, and draw them by the cords of His love, so that His servants might become "fishers of men." {DA 249.3}

Question: Why were the disciples pressed hard by unbelief, and weary with fruitless toil that sad night on the lake? And, what deep lesson which the miracle conveyed for the disciples is a lesson for us also?

Answer: They were separated from Christ. So it is with us; apart from Christ, our work is fruitless, and it is easy to distrust and murmur. but, His presence kindled their faith, and brought them joy and success. And, that He whose word could gather the fishes from the sea could also impress human hearts, and draw them by the cords of His love, so that His servants might become "fishers of men."

They were humble and unlearned men, those fishers of Galilee; but Christ, the light of the world, was abundantly able to qualify them for the position for which He had chosen them. The Saviour did not despise education; for when controlled by the love of God, and devoted to His service, intellectual culture is a blessing. But He passed by the wise men of His time, because they were so self-confident that they could not sympathize with suffering humanity, and become colaborers with the Man of Nazareth. In their bigotry they scorned to be taught by Christ. The Lord Jesus seeks the co-operation of those who will become unobstructed channels for the communication of His grace. The first thing to be learned by all who would become workers together with God is the lesson of self-distrust; then they are prepared to have imparted to them the character of Christ. This is not to be gained through education in the most scientific schools. It is the fruit of wisdom that is obtained from the divine Teacher alone. {DA 249.4}

Question: What kind of men were those fishers of Galilee? And, how Christ was able qualify them for their position?

Answer: They were humble and unlearned men. And, by Him, the light of the world was abundantly able to qualify them for the position for which He had chosen them.

Question: Why did Christ pass by the wise men of His time? And, whom does He seek to become co-laborers with Him?

Answer: Because they were so self-confident that they could not sympathize with suffering humanity, and become co-laborers with the Man of Nazareth. He seeks the co-operation of those who will become unobstructed channels for the communication of His grace.

It's Story Time!

Our book selection this Sabbath is entitled, “Sons and Daughters of God”

Chapter 1- Countless Angels Ready to Help Us

Narrated by our dear Brother Graves!

And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne . . . and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands.

Revelation 5:11. {SD 35.1}

When Christ ascended to the Father, He did not leave His followers without help. The Holy Spirit, as His representative, and the heavenly angels, as ministering spirits, are sent forth to aid those who against great odds are fighting the good fight of faith. Ever remember that Jesus is your helper. No one understands as well as He your peculiarities of character. He is watching over you, and if you are willing to be guided by Him, He will throw around you influences for good that will enable you to accomplish all His will for you. {SD 35.2}

Nothing is apparently more helpless, yet really more invincible, than the soul that feels its nothingness and relies wholly on the merits of the Saviour. God would send every angel in heaven to the aid of such a one, rather than allow him to be overcome. {SD 35.3}

Angels are God's ministers, radiant with the light ever flowing from His presence, and speeding on rapid wing to execute His will. {SD 35.4}

Angels are ever present where they are most needed, with those who have the hardest battle with self to fight, and whose surroundings are the most discouraging. {SD 35.5}

In all ages, angels have been near to Christ's faithful followers. The vast confederacy of evil is arrayed against all who would overcome; but Christ would have us look to the things which are not seen, to the armies of heaven encamped about all who love God, to deliver them. From what dangers, seen and unseen, we have been preserved through the interposition of the angels, we shall never know, until in the light of eternity we see the providences of God. Then we shall know that the whole family of heaven was interested in the family here below, and that messengers from the throne of God attended our steps from day to day. {SD 35.6}

Next Week We will continue with part 3 in our lesson entitled, “The Call by the Sea” in our study book “Desire of Ages”

Closing Prayer – request one of the little ones or mommies or daddies to give prayer.
