Luke 6:15 (KJV)

And Judas [the brother] of James, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitor.

Matthew 10:20 (KJV)

Let's continue in our book Desire of Ages, Chapter #25, page 250 - 251

Jesus chose unlearned fishermen because they had not been schooled in the traditions and erroneous customs of their time. They were men of native ability, and they were humble and teachable,—men whom He could educate for His work. In the common walks of life there is many a man patiently treading the round of daily toil, unconscious that he possesses powers which, if called into action, would raise him to an equality with the world's most honored men. The touch of a skillful hand is needed to arouse those dormant faculties. It was such men that Jesus called to be His colaborers; and He gave them the advantage of association with Himself. Never had the world's great men such a teacher. When the disciples came forth from the Saviour's training, they were no longer ignorant and uncultured. They had become like Him in mind and character, and men took knowledge of them that they had been with Jesus.

{DA 250.1}

Question: Why did Jesus choose unlearned fishermen? And, how were the disciples when they came forth from the Saviour's training?

Answer: Because they had not been schooled in the traditions and erroneous customs of their time. They were men of native ability, humble and teachable; whom He could educate for His work. And, they were no longer ignorant and uncultured, they had become like Him in mind and character.

It is not the highest work of education to communicate knowledge merely, but to impart that vitalizing energy which is received through the contact of mind with mind, and soul with soul. It is only life that can beget life. What privilege, then, was theirs who for three years were in daily contact with that divine life from which has flowed every life-giving impulse that has blessed the world! Above all his companions, John the beloved disciple yielded himself to the power of that wondrous life. He says, "The life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and show unto you that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us." "Of His fullness have all we received, and grace for grace." 1 John 1:2; John 1:16.

Question: what is the highest work of education to communicate knowledge? And, what privilege was theirs who for three years were in daily contact with Christ divine life?

Answer: To impart that vitalizing energy which is received through the contact of mind with mind, and soul with soul? And, their bore witness, and showed unto us that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us. "Of His fullness have all we received, and grace for grace."

In the apostles of our Lord there was nothing to bring glory to themselves. It was evident that the success of their labors was due only to God. The lives of these men, the characters they developed, and the mighty work that God wrought through them, are a testimony to what He will do for all who are teachable and obedient. {DA 250.3}

Question: what was the evident that the success of the disciple’s labors were due only to God? And. What are the testimonies to what He will do for all who are teachable and obedient?

Answer: In the apostles of our Lord there was nothing to bring glory to themselves. And, the lives of these men, the characters they developed, and the mighty work that God wrought through them.

Song: Let us learn a beautiful song dear one how to ask Savior, teach me day by day!

Savior, teach me day by day
Savior, teach me day by day Love’s sweet lesson to obey, Sweeter lesson cannot be, Loving Him Who first loved me. With a child’s glad heart of love At Thy bidding may I move, Prompt to serve and follow Thee, Loving Him Who first loved me.	Teach me thus Thy steps to trace, Strong to follow in Thy grace, Learning how to love from Thee, Loving Him Who first loved me. Love in loving finds employ, In obedience all her joy; Ever new that joy will be, Loving Him Who first loved me.
Thus may I rejoice to show That I feel the love I owe; Singing, till Thy face I see, Of His love Who first loved me.

He who loves Christ the most will do the greatest amount of good. There is no limit to the usefulness of one who, by putting self aside, makes room for the working of the Holy Spirit upon his heart, and lives a life wholly consecrated to God. If men will endure the necessary discipline, without complaining or fainting by the way, God will teach them hour by hour, and day by day. He longs to reveal His grace. If His people will remove the obstructions, He will pour forth the waters of salvation in abundant streams through the human channels. If men in humble life were encouraged to do all the good they could do, if restraining hands were not laid upon them to repress their zeal, there would be a hundred workers for Christ where now there is one. {DA 250.4}

Question: Why is there no limit to the usefulness of one who put self aside, and what kind of life will they live? And if men will endure the necessary discipline, without complaining or fainting by the way, what will God do?

Answer: It makes room for the working of the Holy Spirit upon his heart, and lives a life wholly consecrated to God. And, God will teach them hour by hour, and day by day. He longs to reveal His grace.

Song: Let’s learn one more scripture song dear ones from the book of Isaiah!

Isaiah44:3 (KJV) For I will pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground: I will pour my spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring:
--

God takes men as they are, and educates them for His service, if they will yield themselves to Him. The Spirit of God, received into the soul, will quicken all its faculties. Under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the mind that is devoted unreservedly to God develops harmoniously, and is strengthened to comprehend and fulfill the requirements of God. The weak, vacillating character becomes changed to one of strength and steadfastness. Continual devotion establishes so close a relation between Jesus and His disciple that the Christian becomes like Him in mind and character. Through a connection with Christ he will have clearer and broader views. His discernment will be more penetrative, his judgment better balanced. He who longs to be of service to Christ is so quickened by the life-giving power of the Sun of Righteousness that he is enabled to bear much fruit to the glory of God. {DA 251.1}

Question: How does God take men? And what happens when the spirit of God is received into the soul?

Answer: God takes men as they are, and educates them for His service, if they will yield themselves to Him. And, it will quicken all its faculties under His guidance, the mind that is devoted unreservedly to God develops harmoniously, and is strengthened to comprehend and fulfill the requirements of God.

Men of the highest education in the arts and sciences have learned precious lessons from Christians in humble life who were designated by the world as unlearned. But these obscure disciples had obtained an education in the highest of all schools. They had sat at the feet of Him who spoke as "never man spake." {DA 251.2}

Question: What did men of the highest education learn from Christians designated by the world as unlearned? And, where did these obscure the disciples obtain their education?

Answer: They have learned precious lessons from Christians in humble life. And, in the highest of all schools they had sat at the feet of Him who spoke as "never man spake."

Song: Let's learn another beautiful hymn dear one how we can also sit at the feet of Jesus!

Sitting at the feet of Jesus
Sitting at the feet of Jesus, Oh, what words I hear Him say! Happy place! so near, so precious! May it find me there each day. Sitting at the feet of Jesus, I would look upon the past; For His love has been so gracious, It has won my heart at last. Sitting at the feet of Jesus, Where can mortal be more blest? There I lay my sins and sorrows And, when weary, find sweet rest.	Sitting at the feet of Jesus, There I love to weep and pray, While I from His fullness gather Grace and comfort every day. Bless me, O my Savior, bless me, As I sit low at Thy feet. Oh, look down in love upon me; Let me see Thy face so sweet. Give me, Lord, the mind of Jesus; Make me holy as He is. May I prove I've been with Jesus, Who is all my righteousness.

It's Story Time!

Our book selection this Sabbath is entitled, “Sons and Daughters of God”
Chapter 1-They Minister to the Heirs of Salvation
Narrated by our dear Brother Graves!

Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation? Hebrews 1:14. {SD 36.1}.

God has angels whose whole work is to draw those who shall be heirs of salvation. . . .
The angels' work is to keep back the powers of Satan. {SD 36.2}

The work of these heavenly beings is to prepare the inhabitants of this world to become children of God, pure, holy, undefiled. But men, though professing to be followers of Christ, do not place themselves in a position where they can understand this ministry, and thus the work of the heavenly messengers is made hard. The angels, who do always behold the face of the Father in heaven, would prefer to remain close by the side of God, in the pure and holy atmosphere of heaven; but a work must be done in bringing this heavenly atmosphere to the souls who are tempted and tried, that Satan may not disqualify them for the place the Lord would have them fill in the heavenly courts. Principalities and powers in heavenly places combine with these angels in their ministration for those who shall be heirs of salvation. {SD 36.3}

Angels, who will do for you what you can not do for yourselves, are waiting for your co-operation. They are waiting for you to respond to the drawing of Christ. Draw nigh to God and to one another. By desire, by silent prayer, by resistance of satanic agencies, put your will on the side of God's will. While you have one desire to resist the devil, and sincerely pray, Deliver me from temptation, you will have strength for your day. It is the work of the heavenly angels to come close to the tried, the tempted, the suffering ones. They labor long and untiringly to save the souls for whom Christ has died. And when souls appreciate their advantages, appreciate the heavenly assistance sent them, respond to the Holy Spirit's working in their behalf; when they put their will on the side of Christ's will, angels bear the tidings heavenward. . . . And there is rejoicing among the heavenly host. {SD 36.4}

Next Week We will begin a new chapter in our lesson entitled, “At Capernaum” in our study book “Desire of Ages”

Closing Prayer – request one of the little ones or mommies or daddies to give prayer.

Next Sabbath: Chapter 26 “At Capernaum” Sabbath March 28, 2015.

Have a Blessed Sabbath dear one, and enjoy your activities. God Bless!
