Song for opening the Sabbath School:

Hymn #591- I Know My Heavenly Father
1. I know my heav'nly Father knows The storms that would my way oppose; But He can drive the clouds away, And turn my darkness into day. (2 x)	3. I know my heav'nly Father knows How frail I am to meet my foes; But He my cause will e'er defend, Uphold and keep me to the end. (2 x)
2. I know my heav'nly Father knows The balm I need to soothe my woes; And with His touch of love divine He heals this wounded soul of mine. (2 x)	4. I know my heav'nly Father knows The hour my journey here will close; And may that hour, O faithful Guide, Find me safe sheltered by Thy side. (2 x)
Refrain: He knows, My Father knows, He knows, I'm sure He knows The storms that would my way oppose; He knows, My Father knows, He knows, I'm sure He knows And tempers every wind that blows.

Lesson #170: “The Touch of Faith”

Mark 5:21 (KJV)

And when Jesus was passed over again by ship unto the other side, much people gathered unto him: and he was nigh unto the sea.

*This Sabbath boys and girls, we will begin a new chapter in our lesson entitle,
“The Touch of Faith” in our study book Desire of Ages!*

Mark 5:22 (KJV)

And, behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet,

Mark 5:23 (KJV)

And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death: [I pray thee], come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live.

Mark 5:24 (KJV)

And [Jesus] went with him; and much people followed him, and thronged him.

Mark 5:35 (KJV)

While he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's [house certain] which said, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further?

Mark 5:36 (KJV)

As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afraid, only believe.

Mark 5:37 (KJV)

And he suffered no man to follow him, save Peter, and James, and John the brother of James.

Mark 5:41 (KJV)

And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Talitha cumi; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, arise.

Mark 5:42 (KJV)

And straightway the damsel arose, and walked; for she was [of the age] of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment.

Let's continue in our book Desire of Ages, Chapter #36, pages 342-343

Returning from Gergesa to the western shore, Jesus found a multitude gathered to receive Him, and they greeted Him with joy. He remained by the seaside for a time, teaching and healing, and then repaired to the house of Levi-Matthew to meet the publicans at the feast. Here Jairus, the ruler of the synagogue, found Him. {DA 342.1}

This elder of the Jews came to Jesus in great distress, and cast himself at His feet, exclaiming, "My little daughter lieth at the point of death: I pray Thee, come and lay Thy hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live." {DA 342.2}

Question: How did the multitude receive Jesus at the western shore? And, what happened while Jesus remained by the seaside for a time, teaching and healing?

Answer: A multitude gathered to receive Him and they greeted Him with joy. And, this elder of the Jews came to Jesus in great distress, and cast himself at His feet, exclaiming, "My little daughter lieth at the point of death: I pray Thee, come and lay Thy hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live."

Jesus set out at once with the ruler for his home. Though the disciples had seen so many of His works of mercy, they were surprised at His compliance with the entreaty of the haughty rabbi; yet they accompanied their Master, and the people followed, eager and expectant. {DA 342.3}

The ruler's house was not far distant, but Jesus and His companions advanced slowly, for the crowd pressed Him on every side. The anxious father was impatient of delay; but Jesus, pitying the people, stopped now and then to relieve some suffering one, or to comfort a troubled heart. {DA 342.4}

Question: How did Jesus and His companions react to the distress of this elder who pleaded about his sick daughter?

Answer: Jesus set out at once with the ruler for his home and they (companions) were surprised at His compliance with the entreaty of the haughty rabbi; yet they accompanied their Master.

While they were still on the way, a messenger pressed through the crowd, bearing to Jairus the news that his daughter was dead, and it was useless to trouble the Master further. The word caught the ear of Jesus. "Fear not," He said; "believe only, and she shall be made whole." {DA 342.5}

Question: Who pressed through the crowd, bearing to Jairus the news that his daughter was dead? And, what was Jesus' response as the word caught His ears?

Answer: A messenger informing that it was useless to trouble the Master further his daughter was dead. And, "Fear not," He said; "believe only, and she shall be made whole."

Song: Let's learn a beautiful scripture song together dear ones, from the book of Hebrews!

Hebrews 11:6 (KJV)

But without faith [it is] impossible to please [him]:
for he that cometh to God must believe that he is,
and [that] he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.
Hebrews chapter 11 verse 6

Jairus pressed closer to the Saviour, and together they hurried to the ruler's home. Already the hired mourners and flute players were there, filling the air with their clamor. The presence of the crowd, and the tumult jarred upon the spirit of Jesus. He tried to silence them, saying, "Why make ye this ado, and weep? the damsel is not dead, but sleepeth." They were indignant at the words of the Stranger. They had seen the child in the embrace of death, and they laughed Him to scorn. Requiring them all to leave the house, Jesus took with Him the father and mother of the maiden, and the three disciples, Peter, James, and John, and together they entered the chamber of death. {DA 343.1}

Question: What did Jesus state as He tried to silence the crowd? And, how did they react to the words of the Saviour's statement about the child?

Answer: "Why make ye this ado, and weep? the damsel is not dead, but sleepeth." And, they were indignant at the words of the Stranger. They had seen the child in the embrace of death, and they laughed Him to scorn.

Jesus approached the bedside, and, taking the child's hand in His own, He pronounced softly, in the familiar language of her home, the words, "Damsel, I say unto thee, arise." {DA 343.2}

Instantly a tremor passed through the unconscious form. The pulses of life beat again. The lips unclosed with a smile. The eyes opened widely as if from sleep, and the maiden gazed with wonder on the group beside her. She arose, and her parents clasped her in their arms, and wept for joy. {DA 343.3}

Question: What did Jesus do when He approach the child's bedside? And what happened next?

Answer: Taking the child's hand in His own, He pronounced softly, in the familiar language of her home, the words, "Damsel, I say unto thee, arise." And, instantly a tremor passed through the unconscious form the eyes opened widely as if from sleep, she arose.

Song: Let's learn another beautiful scripture song dear one, from the book of Isaiah!

Isaiah 60:1(KJV)

Arise, shine;
for thy light is come,
and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.

Arise, shine;
for thy light is come,
and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.

On the way to the ruler's house, Jesus had met, in the crowd, a poor woman who for twelve years had suffered from a disease that made her life a burden. She had spent all her means upon physicians and remedies, only to be pronounced incurable. But her hopes revived when she heard of the cures that Christ performed. She felt assured that if she could only go to Him she would be healed. In weakness and suffering she came to the seaside where He was teaching, and tried to press through the crowd, but in vain. Again she followed Him from the house of Levi-Matthew, but was still unable to reach Him. She had begun to despair, when, in making His way through the multitude, He came near where she was. {DA 343.4}

Question: Who had Jesus met on the way to the ruler's house? And, how did she try to reach Jesus to be heal?

Answer: Jesus had met, in the crowd, a poor woman who for twelve years had suffered from a disease that made her life a burden. And, she came to the seaside where He was teaching, and tried to press through the crowd, but in vain. Again she followed Him from the house of Levi-Matthew, but was still unable to reach Him; Until He came near where she was.

Song: Let's learn a hymn together dear one title, "Pass Me Not, O Gentle Savior"!

PASS ME NOT, O GENTLE SAVIOR
<http://www.cyberhymnal.org/htm/p/a/passment.htm>

Pass me not, O gentle Savior,
Hear my humble cry;
While on others Thou art calling,
Do not pass me by.

Refrain

Let me at Thy throne of mercy
Find a sweet relief,
Kneeling there in deep contrition;
Help my unbelief.

Refrain

Trusting only in Thy merit,
Would I seek Thy face;
Heal my wounded, broken spirit,
Save me by Thy grace.

Refrain

Thou the Spring of all my comfort,
More than life to me,
Whom have I on earth beside Thee?
Whom in Heav'n but Thee?

Refrain

Savior, Savior,
Hear my humble cry;
While on others Thou art calling,
Do not pass me by.

Gather the little ones together!
It's Story Time!

Our book selection this Sabbath is entitle, “Sons and Daughters of God”

Chapter 3-Simplicity

But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. 2 Corinthians 11:3.
{SD 86.1}

He who will observe simplicity in all his habits, restricting the appetite and controlling the passions, may preserve his mental powers strong, active, and vigorous, quick to perceive everything which demands thought or action, keen to discriminate between the holy and the unholy, and ready to engage in every enterprise for the glory of God and the benefit of humanity. {SD 86.2}

The little ones should be educated in childlike simplicity. They should be trained to be content with the small, helpful duties and the pleasures and experiences natural to their years. Childhood answers to the blade in the parable, and the blade has a beauty peculiarly its own. Children should not be forced into a precocious maturity, but as long as possible should retain the freshness and grace of their early years. The more quiet and simple the life of the child--the more free from artificial excitement and the more in harmony with nature--the more favorable it is to physical and mental vigor and to spiritual strength. {SD 86.3}

Parents should by their example encourage the formation of habits of simplicity, and draw their children away from an artificial to a natural life. Those children are most attractive who are natural and unaffected. {SD 86.4}

The greatest Teacher the world ever knew was admired for His simplicity; for He presented divine truth in such a way that even children could comprehend His words, and at the same time He drew the attention of the best educated and deepest thinkers of the world. By the use of familiar illustrations He made truth plain to the minds of the common people. In simplicity He sowed the seed of the gospel truth in the minds and hearts of His hearers, and it sprang up and yielded a harvest unto everlasting life. {SD 86.5}

His [Christ's] glory was in His simplicity. {SD 86.6}

Solution

For the final message double puzzle phrase in page #10

2 Corinthians 11:3 (KJV)

But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.
