Let’s continue in our book Desire of Ages, Chapter #43, pages 402

This was the only miracle that Jesus wrought while on this journey. It was for the performance of this act that He went to the borders of Tyre and Sidon. He wished to relieve the afflicted woman, and at the same time to leave an example in His work of mercy toward one of a despised people for the benefit of His disciples when He should no longer be with them. He wished to lead them from their Jewish exclusiveness to be interested in working for others besides their own people. {DA 402.1}

Question: What was the only reason no other miracle was wrought by Jesus while on His journey to the borders of Tyre and Sidon and why? And, did he want to leave them in their Jewish exclusiveness?

Answer: He wished to relieve the afflicted woman, and to leave an example in His work of mercy toward one of a despised people for the benefit of His disciples when He should no longer be with them. And, No! He wished to lead them to be interested in working for others besides their own people.

Jesus longed to unfold the deep mysteries of the truth which had been hid for ages, that the Gentiles should be fellow heirs with the Jews, and “partakers of His promise in Christ by the gospel.” Ephesians 3:6: This truth the disciples were slow to learn, and the divine Teacher gave them lesson upon lesson. In rewarding the faith of the centurion at Capernaum, and preaching the gospel to the inhabitants of Sychar, He had already given evidence that He did not share the intolerance of the Jews. But the Samaritans had some knowledge of God; and the centurion had shown kindness to Israel. Now Jesus brought the disciples in contact with a heathen, whom they regarded as having no reason above any of her people, to expect favor from Him. He would give an example of how such a one should be treated. The disciples had thought that He dispensed too freely the gifts of His grace. He would show that His love was not to be circumscribed to race or nation. {DA 402.2}

Question: What did Jesus long to unfold which had been hid for ages to His disciple and the Jewish people? And, what was it the disciples slow to learn?

Answer: The deep mysteries of the truth; that the Gentiles should be fellow heirs with the Jews. And, that the gentiles were heirs and partakers of His promise in Christ by the gospel. This divine Teacher gave them lesson upon lesson that Song: Let’s learn our first scripture song together dear ones from the book of Romans!

Romans 11:33 (KJV)

O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God!
how unsearchable [are] his judgments,
and his ways past finding out!

Romans 11:33 (2 xs)
Question: How did the Divine Teachers give them repeated lessons in examples? And, why did Jesus bring the disciples in contact with a heathen, whom they regarded as having no reason above any of her people to expect favor from Him?

Answer: In rewarding the faith of the centurion at Capernaum, and preaching the gospel to the inhabitants of Sychar, He had already given evidence that He did not share the intolerance of the Jews. And, he would give an example of how such a one should be treated.

When He said, “I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel,” He stated the truth, and in His work for the Canaanite woman He was fulfilling His commission. This woman was one of the lost sheep that Israel should have rescued. It was their appointed work, the work which they had neglected, that Christ was doing. {DA 402.3}

Question: What did the Saviour state when he said, “I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel?” And, was the Canaanite woman one of the lost sheep that Israel?

Answer: He stated the truth, and in His work for the Canaanite woman He was fulfilling His commission. And, Yes! This woman was one of the lost sheep that Israel should have rescued.

Song: Let’s learn a beautiful scripture song together dear ones from the book of Jeremiah!

Jeremiah 29:11-14 (KJV)

> For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, (2 xs) saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end. Then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you. And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart. And I will be found of you, (2 xs) saith the LORD: and I will turn away your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the LORD; and I will bring you again into the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive. Jeremiah 29: 11 through 14

This act opened the minds of the disciples more fully to the labor that lay before them among the Gentiles. They saw a wide field of usefulness outside of Judea. They saw souls bearing sorrows unknown to those more highly favored. Among those whom they had been taught to despise were souls longing for help from the mighty Healer, hungering for the light of truth, which had been so abundantly given to the Jews. {DA 402.4}
Question: How did these acts open the minds of the disciples more fully to the labor that lay before them among the Gentiles? And, among whom were souls longing for help from the mighty Healer and hungering for the light of truth?

Answer: They saw a wide field of usefulness outside of Judea. They saw souls bearing sorrows unknown to those more highly favored. And, the soul whom they had been taught to despise to regard as having no reason above any of her peoples a Jews.

Song: let’s learn yet another scripture song together dear ones from the book of Mark!

Mark 16:15-18 (KJV)

And he said unto them,

Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. (2 xs)

He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned.

Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. (2 xs)

And these signs shall follow them that believe;

In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues;

They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; (2 xs) they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover. (2 xs)

Mark 16:15 through 18

Afterward, when the Jews turned still more persistently from the disciples, because they declared Jesus to be the Saviour of the world, and when the partition wall between Jew and Gentile was broken down by the death of Christ, this lesson, and similar ones which pointed to the gospel work unrestricted by custom or nationality, had a powerful influence upon the representatives of Christ, in directing their labors. {DA 402.5}

Question: Why did the Jews afterward turned still more persistently from the disciples? And, what great event caused the partition wall between Jew and Gentile to be broken down had a powerful influence upon the representatives of Christ?

Answer: They turn still more persistently from the disciples, because they declared Jesus to be the Saviour of the world. And, the death of Christ, which pointed to the gospel work unrestricted by custom or nationality.

Song: let’s learn our last scripture song together dear ones from the book of John!

John 3:16-17 (KJV)

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. John It’s Story Time!

Our book selection this Sabbath is entitle, “Sons and Daughters of God”
Chapter 4-God's Grace Sufficient for Every Need
And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. 2 Corinthians 12:9. {SD 119.1}

If you have given yourself to God, to do His work, you have no need to be anxious for tomorrow. He whose servant you are, knows the end from the beginning. The events of tomorrow, which are hidden from your view, are open to the eyes of Him who is omnipotent. {SD 119.2}

When we take into our hands the management of things with which we have to do, and depend upon our own wisdom for success, we are taking a burden which God has not given us, and are trying to bear it without His aid. We are taking upon ourselves the responsibility that belongs to God, and thus are really putting ourselves in His place. We may well have anxiety, and anticipate danger and loss; for it is certain to befall us. But when we really believe that God loves us, and means to do us good, we shall cease to worry about the future. We shall trust God as a child trusts a loving parent. Then our troubles and torments will disappear; for our will is swallowed up in the will of God. {SD 119.3}

Christ has given us no promise of help in bearing today the burdens of tomorrow. He has said, "My grace is sufficient for thee"; but, like the manna given in the wilderness, His grace is bestowed daily, for the day's need. Like the hosts of Israel in their pilgrim life, we may find morning by morning the bread of heaven for the day's supply. {SD 119.4}

One day alone is ours, and during this day we are to live for God. For this one day we are to place in the hand of Christ, in solemn service, all our purposes and plans, casting all our care upon Him, for He careth for us. "I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the Lord, thoughts of peace, and not of evil." {SD 119.5}

AND HE SAID UNTO ME, MY GRACE IS SUFFICIENT FOR THEE: FOR MY STRENGTH IS MADE PERFECT IN WEAKNESS, MOST GLADLY THEREFORE WILL I RATHER GLORY IN MY INHIRMITIES, THAT THE POWER OF CHRIST MAY REST UPON ME.
