Let's continue in our book Desire of Ages, Chapter #46, pages 419-421

Evening is drawing on as Jesus calls to His side three of His disciples, Peter, James, and John, and leads them across the fields, and far up a rugged path, to a lonely mountainside. The Saviour and His disciples have spent the day in traveling and teaching, and the mountain climb adds to their weariness. Christ has lifted burdens from mind and body of many sufferers; He has sent the thrill of life through their enfeebled frames; but He also is compassed with humanity, and with His disciples He is wearied with the ascent. {DA 419.1}

Question: Whom did Jesus call to His side leading them across the fields, far up a rugged path to a lonely mountainside? And, did Christ, who was compassed with humanity, share in the weariness of their journey?

Answer: He led three of His disciples, Peter, James, and John. And, the mountain climb adds to their weariness. Yes! Christ has lifted burdens from mind and body of many sufferers; He has sent the thrill of life through their enfeebled frames. Yet, He is wearied with the ascent.

The light of the setting sun still lingers on the mountain top, and gilds with its fading glory the path they are traveling. But soon the light dies out from hill as well as valley, the sun disappears behind the western horizon, and the solitary travelers are wrapped in the darkness of night. The gloom of their surroundings seems in harmony with their sorrowful lives, around which the clouds are gathering and thickening. {DA 419.2}

Question: What happened when the light died out from hill as well as valley, and the sun disappeared behind the western horizon?

Answer: The sun disappears behind the western horizon, and the solitary travelers are wrapped in the darkness of night their surroundings seems in harmony with their sorrowful lives.

The disciples do not venture to ask Christ whither He is going, or for what purpose. He has often spent entire nights in the mountains in prayer. He whose hand formed mountain and valley is at home with nature, and enjoys its quietude. The disciples follow where Christ leads the way; yet they wonder why their Master should lead them up this toilsome ascent when they are weary, and when He too is in need of rest. {DA 419.3}

Question: How does He (Christ) whose hand formed mountain and valley feel with nature? And, what did the disciples wonder as they followed Christ up the mountain?

Answer: He is at home with nature, and enjoys its quietude. And, they wonder why their Master should lead them up this toilsome ascent when they are weary, and when He too is in need of rest.

Presently Christ tells them that they are now to go no farther. Stepping a little aside from them, the Man of Sorrows pours out His supplications with strong crying and tears. He prays for strength to endure the test in behalf of humanity. He must Himself gain a fresh hold on Omnipotence, for only thus can He contemplate the future. And He pours out His heart longings for His disciples, that in the hour of the power of darkness their faith may not fail. The dew is heavy upon His bowed form, but He heeds it not. The shadows of night gather thickly about Him, but He regards not their gloom. So the hours pass slowly by. At first the disciples unite their prayers with His in sincere devotion; but after a time they are overcome with weariness, and, even while trying to retain their interest in the scene, they fall asleep.

Question: What was reason the Man of Sorrows (our Saviour) poured out His supplications with strong crying and tears? And, what was His prayer for Himself?

Answer: He prays for strength to endure the test in behalf of humanity, pouring out His heart longings for His disciples, that in the hour of the power of darkness their faith may not fail. And, He must Himself gain a fresh hold on Omnipotence, for only thus can He contemplate the future.

Song: *Let's learn our first scripture song together dear ones from the book of Psalms!

Psalms 61:1-4 (KJV)

Hear my cry (2 xs)

Hear my cry, O God; attend unto my prayer.
From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee,
when my heart is overwhelmed:
lead me to the rock [that] is higher than I.
For thou hast been a shelter for me,
[and] a strong tower from the enemy.

I will abide in thy tabernacle for ever: I will trust in the covert of thy wings. Selah.

Continuing: Jesus has told them of His sufferings; He has taken them with Him that they might unite with Him in prayer; even now He is praying for them. The Saviour has seen the gloom of His disciples, and has longed to lighten their grief by an assurance that their faith has not been in vain. Not all, even of the twelve, can receive the revelation He desires to give. Only the three who are to witness His anguish in Gethsemane have been chosen to be with Him on the mount. Now the burden of His prayer is that they may be given a manifestation of the glory He had with the Father before the world was, that His kingdom may be revealed to human eyes, and that His disciples may be strengthened to behold it. He pleads that they may witness a manifestation of His divinity that will comfort them in the hour of His supreme agony with the knowledge that He is of a surety the Son of God and that His shameful death is a part of the plan of redemption.
{DA 419.4}

Question: Why did Jesus take the disciples with Him that they might unite with Him in prayer? And, what was the burden of His prayer as well as His pleaded for them?

Answer: The Saviour has seen the gloom of His disciples, and has longed to lighten their grief by an assurance that their faith has not been in vain. And, that they may be given a manifestation of the glory He had with the Father before the world was that they may witness a manifestation of His divinity that will comfort them in the hour of His supreme agony.

His prayer is heard. While He is bowed in lowliness upon the stony ground, suddenly the heavens open, the golden gates of the city of God are thrown wide, and holy radiance descends upon the mount, enshrouding the Saviour's form. Divinity from within flashes through humanity, and meets the glory coming from above. Arising from His prostrate position, Christ stands in godlike majesty. The soul agony is gone. His countenance now shines "as the sun," and His garments are "white as the light." {DA 421.1}

Question: How was the Saviour's prayer heard while He is bowed in lowliness upon the stony ground? And, how did Christ appear before the disciples after Divinity from within flashed through humanity, and met the glory coming from above?

Answer: Suddenly the heavens open, the golden gates of the city of God are thrown wide, and holy radiance descends upon the mount, enshrouding the Saviour's form. And, Christ stands in godlike majesty. The soul agony is gone, His garments are "white as the light."

The disciples, awaking, behold the flood of glory that illuminates the mount. In fear and amazement they gaze upon the radiant form of their Master. As they become able to endure the wondrous light, they see that Jesus is not alone. Beside Him are two heavenly beings, in close converse with Him. They are Moses, who upon Sinai had talked with God; and Elijah, to whom the high privilege was given--granted to but one other of the sons of Adam--never to come under the power of death. {DA 421.2}

Question: What scene were the disciples awakened to behold in fear and amazement? And, as they become able to endure the wondrous light, whom did they see with Jesus?

Answer: The disciples, awaking, behold the flood of glory that illuminates the mount; they gaze upon the radiant form of their Master. And, Beside Him are two heavenly beings, in close converse with Him. They are Moses, who upon Sinai had talked with God; and Elijah to whom the high privilege was given--never to come under the power of death.

Song: *Let's learn our last song scripture song together dear ones from the book of Isaiah!

Isaiah 53:4-6 (KJV)

Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows:
yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.
But he [was] wounded for our transgressions, [he was] bruised for our iniquities:
the chastisement of our peace [was] upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.
All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

Isaiah 53:4-6.

Our book selection this Sabbath is entitle,
“Sons and Daughters of God”

Chapter 5-He Was Obedient and Respectful

Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered.
Hebrews 5:8. {SD 130.1}

If you are seeking to reflect the life and character of Christ, you will be true and obedient to your parents. You will show your love for them by your willing obedience. {SD 130.2}

No one can be truly good and great who has not learned to yield his will, first to his parents, and then to God, and to obey with alacrity. Those who learn to obey are the only ones who will be fitted to command. {SD 130.3}

By learning the lessons of obedience, children are not only honoring their parents and lightening their burdens, but they are pleasing One higher in authority. "Honour thy father and thy mother" is a positive command. Children who treat their parents with disrespect, and disregard their wishes, not only dishonor them, but break the law of God. The earlier the will is made to yield to the will of the parents, and the more complete the submission, the less difficult it will be to yield to the requirements of God. And none can hope for the love and blessing of God who do not learn obedience to His commandments, and stand up firmly against temptation. {SD 130.4}

His [Christ's] life was characterized with firmness, yet He was ever respectful and obedient. {SD 130.5}

He was a perfect pattern for all youth. Ever He manifested deference and respect for age. The religion of Jesus will never lead any child to be rude and uncourteous. {SD 130.6}

The infinite Eye can search the heart, and read every defect in the character. He does not estimate youth by their outward appearance, but from the goodness they possess at heart, which can only be gained by watchfulness and prayer. . . . He marks their deportment to their parents and the family circle. If they are respectful, kind, affectionate, and truly polite, . . . their characters are recorded in the books of Heaven as valuable. {SD 130.7}.
