

Children Sabbath School Lesson #248 for 2-24-2018
Song for opening the Sabbath School:

Our Opening Song is a Hymn entitle, “Saviour, teach me day by day”
1. Saviour, teach me day by day, Love’s sweet lesson to obey, Sweeter lesson cannot be, Loving Him who first loved me. 2. With a child’s glad heart of love, At Thy bidding may I move, Prompt to serve and follow Thee, Loving Him who first loved me.	3. Teach me I am not my own, I am Thine, and Thine alone; Thine to keep, to rule, to save From all sin that would enslave. 4. Love in loving finds employ, In obedience all her joy; Ever new that joy will be, Loving Him who first loved me.
5. Teach me thus Thy steps to trace, Strong to follow in Thy grace. Learning how to love from Thee, Loving Him who first loved me.

Lesson #248 “The Last Journey From Galilee” Part 2

Mark 10:1 (KJV)

And he arose from thence, and cometh into the coasts of Judaea by the farther side of Jordan: and the people resort unto him again; and, as he was wont, he taught them again.

*This Sabbath boys and girls, we will continue with part 2 of our lesson entitle,
“The Last Journey From Galilee” in our lesson book, Desire of Ages!*

Luke 9:49 (KJV) And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbad him, because he followeth not with us.

Luke 9:51 (KJV) And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, Luke 9:52 (KJV) And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him.

Luke 9:53 (KJV) And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.

Luke 9:54 (KJV) And when his disciples James and John saw [this], they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did?

Luke 9:55 (KJV) But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.

Luke 9:56 (KJV) For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save [them]. And they went to another village.

Luke 10:1 (KJV) After these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come.

Matthew 10:5 (KJV) These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into [any] city of the Samaritans enter ye not:

Let's continue in our book Desire of Ages, Chapter #53, pages 486-488

And He “sent messengers before His face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for Him.” But the people refused to receive Him, because He was on His way to Jerusalem. This they interpreted as meaning that Christ showed a preference for the Jews, whom they hated with intense bitterness. Had He come to restore the temple and worship upon Mount Gerizim, they would gladly have received Him; but He was going to Jerusalem, and they would show Him no hospitality. Little did they realize that they were turning from their doors the best gift of heaven. Jesus invited men to receive Him, He asked favors at their hands, that He might come near to them, to bestow the richest blessings. For every favor manifested toward Him, He requited a more precious grace. But all was lost to the Samaritans because of their prejudice and bigotry. {DA 486.3}

James and John, Christ's messengers, were greatly annoyed at the insult shown to their Lord. They were filled with indignation because He had been so rudely treated by the Samaritans whom He was honoring by His presence. They had recently been with Him on the mount of transfiguration, and had seen Him glorified by God, and honored by Moses and Elijah. This manifest dishonor on the part of the Samaritans, should not, they thought, be passed over without marked punishment. {DA 487.1}

Question: What was the great loss to the Samaritan people as they refused to receive Jesus and why? And, why were James and John greatly annoyed at the insult shown to their Lord?

Answer: Little did they realize that they were turning from their doors the best gift of heaven; because of their prejudice and bigotry. And, they were filled with indignation because He had been so rudely treated by the Samaritans whom He was honoring by His presence.

Coming to Christ, they reported to Him the words of the people, telling Him that they had even refused to give Him a night's lodging. They thought that a grievous wrong had been done Him, and seeing Mount Carmel in the distance, where Elijah had slain the false prophets, they said, “Wilt Thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did?” They were surprised to see that Jesus was pained by their words, and still more surprised as His rebuke fell upon their ears, “Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of. For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them.” And He went to another village. {DA 487.2}

Question: What scene did James and John see that led them to say, “Wilt Thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did?” And, what surprised them concerning Jesus' pained rebuke of their words?

Answer: Seeing Mount Carmel in the distance, where Elijah had slain the false prophets. And, surprised as His rebuke fell upon their ears, "Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of. For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them."

It is no part of Christ's mission to compel men to receive Him. It is Satan, and men actuated by his spirit, that seek to compel the conscience. Under a pretense of zeal for righteousness, men who are confederate with evil angels bring suffering upon their fellow men, in order to convert them to their ideas of religion; but Christ is ever showing mercy, ever seeking to win by the revealing of His love. He can admit no rival in the soul, nor accept of partial service; but He desires only voluntary service, the willing surrender of the heart under the constraint of love. There can be no more conclusive evidence that we possess the spirit of Satan than the disposition to hurt and destroy those who do not appreciate our work, or who act contrary to our ideas. {DA 487.3}

Every human being, in body, soul, and spirit, is the property of God. Christ died to redeem all. Nothing can be more offensive to God than for men, through religious bigotry, to bring suffering upon those who are the purchase of the Saviour's blood. {DA 488.1}

Question: Is it a part of Christ' mission to compel men to receive Him, if not Him then whom? And, who is the property of God and what is more offensive to Him?

Answer: No! It is Satan, and men actuated by his spirit, that seek to compel the conscience. And, every human being, in body, soul, and spirit, is the property of God; for men, through religious bigotry, to bring suffering upon those who are the purchase of the Saviour's blood.

Song: Let's learn our first beautiful scripture song together dear one, from the book of John!

Scripture Song Singer- God's Love

John 3:16 (KJV)

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son,
that whosoever believeth in him should not perish,
but have everlasting life.

John 3:16

“And He arose from thence, and cometh into the coasts of Judea by the farther side of Jordan: and the people resort unto Him again; and, as He was wont, He taught them again.”
Mark 10:1. {DA 488.2}

A considerable part of the closing months of Christ's ministry was spent in Perea, the province on "the farther side of Jordan" from Judea. Here the multitude thronged His steps, as in His early ministry in Galilee, and much of His former teaching was repeated. {DA 488.3}

As He had sent out the twelve, so He “appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come.”

Luke 10:1. These disciples had been for some time with Him, in training for their work. When the twelve were sent out on their first separate mission, other disciples accompanied Jesus in His journey through Galilee. Thus they had the privilege of intimate association with Him, and direct personal instruction. Now this larger number also were to go forth on a separate mission.
{DA 488.4}

Question: Had Jesus only sent out the twelve? And, were they the only ones sent out on their first separate mission who had the privilege of intimate association with Him?

Answer: No! He “appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come.” And, no! Other disciples accompanied Jesus in His journey through Galilee and direct personal instruction also was to go forth on a separate mission.

Song: Let’s learn another beautiful song together dear one entitled, “There Were Twelve!”

There Were Twelve

There were twelve disciples, Jesus called to help Him

Simon Peter, Andrew

James, his brother John

Philip, Thomas, Matthew,

James, the sons of Alphaeus

Thaddeus, Simon, Judas and Bartholomew

He has called us too (2 xs)

We are his disciples

I am one and you.

He has called us too (2 xs)

We are his disciples

We His work must do

The directions to the seventy were similar to those that had been given to the twelve; but the command to the twelve, not to enter into any city of the Gentiles or of the Samaritans, was not given to the seventy. Though Christ had just been repulsed by the Samaritans, His love toward them was unchanged. When the seventy went forth in His name, they visited, first of all, the cities of Samaria. {DA 488.5}

Question: What command was given to the twelve disciples not to do, but not to the seventy? And, was Christ love change for the Samaritans even though been repulsed by them?

Answer: Not to enter into any city of the Gentiles or of the Samaritans. And, no! His love toward them was unchanged. When the seventy went forth in His name, they visited, first of all, the cities of Samaria.

Matthew 28:19-20 (KJV)

Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost:

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you:

and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

Chapter 6-We Do Not Consent to Enticement of Sinners

My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not. . . . For their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood. Proverbs 1:10, 16. {SD 164.1}

It is not safe for the professed follower of Christ to associate with the careless and reckless; for it is an easy matter to come to view things as they do, and to lose all sense of what it means to be a follower of Jesus. Guard yourself on this one point in particular,-- do not be influenced and led astray by those you have reason to know, by their words and works, are not in connection with God. {SD 164.2}

Hear the voice of God: "My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not." Those who are controlled by the Spirit of God are to keep their perceptive faculties awake; for the time has come when their integrity and loyalty to God and to one another will be tested. Do not commit the least injustice in order to gain an advantage for yourselves. Do unto others, in small matters as well as in great, as you would that others should do unto you. God says, "Ye are my witnesses." You are to act in My place. Could the curtain be rolled back, you would see the heavenly universe looking with intense interest upon the one who is tempted. If you do not yield to the enemy, there is joy in heaven. When the first suggestion of wrong is heard, dart a prayer to heaven, and then firmly resist the temptation to tamper with the principles condemned in God's Word. The first time the temptation comes, meet it in such a decided manner that it will never be repeated. Turn from the one who has ventured to present wrong practises to you. Resolutely turn from the tempter, saying, I must separate from your influence; for I know you are not walking in the footsteps of our Saviour. {SD 164.3}

Even though you may not feel able to speak a word to those who are working on wrong principles, leave them. Your withdrawal and silence may do more than words. . . . Have courage to do right. {SD 164.4}.
