

Children Sabbath School Lesson #251 for 4-7-2018
Song for opening the Sabbath School:

Our Opening Song is a Hymn entitle, “Saviour, teach me day by day”
1. Saviour, teach me day by day, Love’s sweet lesson to obey, Sweeter lesson cannot be, Loving Him who first loved me. 2. With a child’s glad heart of love, At Thy bidding may I move, Prompt to serve and follow Thee, Loving Him who first loved me.	3. Teach me I am not my own, I am Thine, and Thine alone; Thine to keep, to rule, to save From all sin that would enslave. 4. Love in loving finds employ, In obedience all her joy; Ever new that joy will be, Loving Him who first loved me.
5. Teach me thus Thy steps to trace, Strong to follow in Thy grace. Learning how to love from Thee, Loving Him who first loved me.

Lesson #251 “The Last Journey From Galilee” Part 5

2 Corinthians 12:10 (KJV)

Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

*This Sabbath boys and girls, we will continue with part 5 of our lesson entitle,
 “The Last Journey From Galilee” in our lesson book, Desire of Ages!*

2 Corinthians 3:3 (KJV)

[Forasmuch as ye are] manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshly tables of the heart.

Luke 10:20 (KJV)

Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven.

Luke 10:21 (KJV)

In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight.

Luke 10:22 (KJV)

All things are delivered to me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and [he] to whom the Son will reveal [him].

John 14:16 (KJV)

And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

John 14:17 (KJV)

[Even] the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

Let's continue in our book Desire of Ages, Chapter #53, pages 489-493

Jesus added, "Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven." Rejoice not in the possession of power, lest you lose sight of your dependence upon God. Be careful lest self-sufficiency come in, and you work in your own strength, rather than in the spirit and strength of your Master. Self is ever ready to take the credit if any measure of success attends the work. Self is flattered and exalted, and the impression is not made upon other minds that God is all and in all. The apostle Paul says, "When I am weak, then am I strong." 2 Corinthians 12:10. When we have a realization of our weakness, we learn to depend upon a power not inherent. Nothing can take so strong a hold on the heart as the abiding sense of our responsibility to God. Nothing reaches so fully down to the deepest motives of conduct as a sense of the pardoning love of Christ. We are to come in touch with God, then we shall be imbued with His Holy Spirit, that enables us to come in touch with our fellow men. Then rejoice that through Christ you have become connected with God, members of the heavenly family. While you look higher than yourself, you will have a continual sense of the weakness of humanity. The less you cherish self, the more distinct and full will be your comprehension of the excellence of your Saviour. The more closely you connect yourself with the source of light and power, the greater light will be shed upon you, and the greater power will be yours to work for God. Rejoice that you are one with God, one with Christ, and with the whole family of heaven. {DA 493.3}

Question: What did Jesus add by telling the disciples they should rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice in what? And, what other ammunition to rejoice in did He say lest they lose sight of what?

Answer: They should rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven. Rejoice not in the possession of power, lest you lose sight of your dependence upon God. And, be careful lest self-sufficiency come in, and you work in your own strength, rather than in the spirit and strength of your Master.

Question: What will happen the more closely you connect yourself with the source of light and power? And, what three great things you will rejoice in?

Answer: The greater light will be shed upon you, and the greater power will be yours to work for God. And, rejoice that you are one with God, one with Christ, and with the whole family of heaven.

As the seventy listened to the words of Christ, the Holy Spirit was impressing their minds with living realities, and writing truth upon the tablets of the soul. Though multitudes surrounded them, they were as though shut in with God. {DA 494.1}

All true obedience comes from the heart.

It was heart work with Christ.

And if we consent,

He will so identify Himself with our thoughts and aims, so blend our hearts and minds into conformity to His will,
that when obeying Him we shall be but carrying out our own impulses.

The will, refined and sanctified, will find its highest delight in doing His service.

When we know God as it is our privilege to know Him,
our life will be a life of continual obedience.

Through an appreciation of the character of Christ,
through communion with God,
sin will become hateful to us.

{Desire of Ages 668}

Question: What occurred as the seventy listened to the words of Christ? And, how did they appear though multitudes surrounded them?

Answer: The Holy Spirit was impressing their minds with living realities, and writing truth upon the tablets of the soul. And, they were as though shut in with God.

Knowing that they had caught the inspiration of the hour, Jesus “rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank Thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that Thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in Thy sight. All things are delivered to Me of My Father: and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father, and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal Him.” {DA 494.2}

Question: Why did Jesus rejoice in spirit and what did He say? And, what is delivered to Him of His Father and who knows our Saviour and His Father in Heaven?

Answer: I thank Thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that Thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in Thy sight. And, All things are delivered to Me of My Father: and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father, and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal Him.

The honored men of the world, the so-called great and wise men, with all their boasted wisdom, could not comprehend the character of Christ. They judged Him from outward appearance, from the humiliation that came upon Him as a human being. But to fishermen and publicans it had been given to see the Invisible. Even the disciples failed of understanding all that Jesus desired to reveal to them; but from time to time, as they surrendered themselves to the Holy Spirit's power, their minds were illuminated. They realized that the mighty God, clad in the garb of humanity, was among them. Jesus rejoiced that though this knowledge was not possessed by the wise and prudent, it had been revealed to these humble men. Often as He had presented the Old Testament Scriptures, and showed their application to Himself and His work of atonement, they had been awakened by His Spirit, and lifted into a heavenly atmosphere. Of the spiritual truths spoken by the prophets they had a clearer understanding than had the original writers themselves. Hereafter they would read the Old Testament Scriptures, not as the doctrines of the scribes and Pharisees, not as the utterances of wise men who were dead, but as a new revelation from God. They beheld Him “whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth Him not, neither knoweth Him: but ye know Him; for He dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.”

John 14:17. {DA 494.3}

Question: What can't the honored men of the world or so-called great and wise men, with all their boasted wisdom do? And, how do they judge Him and to whom was it given to see the Invisible?

Answer: They could not comprehend the character of Christ. And, they judged Him from outward appearance, from the humiliation that came upon Him as a human being. And, to fishermen and publicans it had been given.

Question: Who did also fail of understand all that Jesus desired to reveal to them? And, what did they realize after having been awakened by His Spirit, which lifted their thoughts into a heavenly atmosphere?

Answer: The disciples! But from time to time, as they surrendered themselves to the Holy Spirit's power, their minds were illuminated. And, the mighty God, clad in the garb of humanity, was among them, as He had presented the Old Testament Scriptures, and showed their application to Himself and His work of atonement.

Psalms 119:9-16 (KJV)

Psalms 119 verses 9 to 16 taking heed [thereto] according to thy word
Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? (2 xs)
by taking heed [thereto] according to thy word. (2 xs)
With my whole heart have I sought thee:
O let me not wander from thy commandments.
Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee. (2 xs)
Blessed [art] thou, O LORD: teach me thy statutes.
With my lips have I declared all the judgments of thy mouth.
I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies, as [much as] in all riches. (2 xs)
I will meditate in thy precepts, and have respect unto thy ways.
I will delight myself in thy statutes:
I will not forget thy word. (2 xs)

Chapter 6-Happy Home Atmosphere Promotes Health

Happy is that people, whose God is the Lord. Psalm 144:15. {SD 168.1}

A home where love dwells and where it finds expression in looks, in words, in acts, is a place where angels delight to dwell. . . . {SD 168.2}

Let the sunshine of love, cheer, and happy content enter your own hearts, and let its sweet influence pervade the home. . . . The atmosphere thus created will be to the children what air and sunshine are to the vegetable world, promoting health and vigor of mind and body. {SD 168.3}

Educate the soul to cheerfulness, to thankfulness, and to the expression of gratitude to God for the great love wherewith He hath loved us. . . . Christian cheerfulness is the very beauty of holiness. {SD 168.4}

While grief and anxiety cannot remedy a single evil, they can do great harm; but cheerfulness and hope, while they brighten the pathway of others, "are life unto those that find them, and health to all their flesh." {SD 168.5}

The mother should cultivate a cheerful, contented, happy disposition. Every effort in this direction will be abundantly repaid in both the physical well-being and the moral character of her children. A cheerful spirit will promote the happiness of her family, and in a very great degree improve her own health. {SD 168.6}

The healthfulness of youth requires exercise, cheerfulness, and a happy, pleasant atmosphere surrounding them, for the development of physical health and symmetrical character. {SD 168.7}

As children of the light, God would have us cultivate a cheerful, happy spirit, that we may show forth the praises of Him who hath called us out of darkness into His marvelous light. {SD 168.8}
