Praise The Lord

Sing A Joyful Song

361 – Hark! 'Tis The Shepherd's Voice I Hear (Bring them in)

- 1). Hark! 'Tis the Shepherd's voice I hear,
Out in the desert dark and drear,
Calling the sheep who've gone astray,
Far from the Shepherd's fold away.

Refrain:

Bring them in, bring them in,
Bring them in from the fields of sin;
Bring them in, bring them in,
Bring the wandering ones to Jesus.

- 2). Who'll go and help this Shepherd kind,
Help Him the wandering ones to find?
Who'll bring them back into the fold,
Where they'll be sheltered from the cold? [Refrain]

- 3). Out in the desert hear their cry,
Out on the mountains wild and high;
Hark! 'Tis the Master speaks to thee,
“Go find My sheep where'er they be.” [Refrain]

Chapter 13 – Riding Into Jerusalem, Part 4

Continuing: It had been the child of His care, and His heart was filled with anguish as He realized that it would soon be made desolate. {SJ 86.3}

Had her people given heed to Christ's teaching, and received Him as the Saviour, Jerusalem would have “stood forever.” {SJ 86.4}

She might have become the queen of kingdoms, free in the strength of her God-given power. {SJ 86.5}

There would then have been no armed soldiers waiting at her gates, no Roman banners waving from her walls. {SJ 86.6}

From Jerusalem the dove of peace would have gone to all nations.

She would have been the crowning glory of the world. {SJ 86.7}

But the Jews had rejected their Saviour; they were about to crucify their King.

Continuing:

And when the sun should set that night, the doom of Jerusalem would be forever sealed.
(About forty years afterward, Jerusalem was utterly destroyed and burned with fire by the Roman army.) {SJ 86.8}

Reports had come to the rulers that Jesus was nearing the city with a vast company of followers. They went out to meet Him, hoping to scatter the throng.
With a show of much authority, they asked: “Who is this?” Matthew 21:10. {SJ 86.9}
The disciples, filled with the Spirit of inspiration, answered:
“Adam will tell you, 'It is the Seed of the woman that shall bruise the serpent's head.'
“Ask Abraham. He will tell you, 'It is Melchisedek, King of Salem, King of Peace.'
“Jacob will tell you, 'He is Shiloh of the tribe of Judah.’

"Jeremiah will tell you, 'The Branch of David, the Lord, our righteousness.' {SJ 87.4}

"Daniel will tell you, 'He is the Messiah.' {SJ 87.5}

"Hosea will tell you, 'He is the Lord God of Hosts, the Lord is His memorial.' {SJ 87.6}

Our Bible verse is taken from the book of Chapter John 1 (KJV)

Wisdom
from Above

12 – Peter,
John, and
Other Disciples

1:40 One of the two which heard John [speak], and followed him, was Andrew,
Simon Peter's brother.

1:41 He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ.

1:42 And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation,
A stone.

“...We Have Found the Messiah....”

“Andrew sought to impart the joy that filled his heart. Going in search of his brother Simon, he cried, ‘We have found the Messiah.’ Simon waited for no second bidding. He also had heard the preaching of John the Baptist, and he hastened to the Saviour. The eye of Christ rested upon him, reading his character and his life history. His impulsive nature, his loving, sympathetic heart, his ambition and self-confidence, the history of his fall, his repentance, his labors, and his martyr death—the Saviour read it all, and He said, ‘Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, A stone.’” (The Desire of Ages 139)

Jesus saw in Simon Peter a disciple that would become very helpful by telling others about Himself. He first needed to learn how to follow Jesus. Do you know how to follow Jesus?

REVIEW!

Chap. 14 – “We Have Found the Messias” Part 2

The disciple John was a man of earnest and deep affection, ardent, yet contemplative. He had begun to discern the glory of Christ,--not the worldly pomp and power for which he had been taught to hope, but "the glory as of the Only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth." John 1:14.

He was absorbed in contemplation of the wondrous theme. {DA 139.4}

Andrew sought to impart the joy that filled his heart. Going in search of his brother Simon, he cried, "We have found the Messias." Simon waited for no second bidding.

He also had heard the preaching of John the Baptist, and he hastened to the Saviour.

The eye of Christ rested upon him, reading his character and his life history.

His impulsive nature, his loving, sympathetic heart, his ambition and self-confidence, the history of his fall, his repentance, his labors, and his martyr death,--the Saviour read it all, and He said,

"Thou art Simon the son of Jona:

thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, A stone." {DA 139.5}

"The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow Me." Philip obeyed the command, and straightway he also became a worker for Christ.

{DA 139.6}

Philip called Nathanael. The latter had been among the throng when the Baptist pointed to Jesus as the Lamb of God. As Nathanael looked upon Jesus, he was disappointed.

Could this man, who bore the marks of toil and poverty, be the Messiah?

Yet Nathanael could not decide to reject Jesus, for the message of John had brought conviction to his heart. {DA 139.7}

Our 3 Bonus Question:

Review

1. Who did Andrew go to find to tell about the Messiah? (John 1:41)
2. What did Andrew tell his brother Simon? (John 1:41)
3. Where did Andrew take Simon? And what did Jesus say about Simon? (John 1:42)

“Turn your eyes upon JESUS”*

#290

1). O soul, are you weary and troubled?
No light in the darkness you see?
There's light for a look at the Savior,
And life more abundant and free!

[Refrain]

2). Through death into life everlasting,
He passed, and we follow Him there;
Over us sin no more hath dominion--
For more than conquerors we are!

[Refrain]

3). His Word shall not fail you--He promised;
Believe Him, and all will be well:
Then go to a world that is dying,
His perfect salvation to tell!

[Refrain]

Refrain:

Turn your eyes upon Jesus,
Look full in His wonderful face,
And the things of earth will grow strangely dim,
In the light of His glory and grace.

Our Opening Scripture
For Our Review Lesson is taken from:
Scripture Singer Song Memory CD-Promises,
Isaiah 53:4-6 (KJV)

Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows:
yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.
But he [was] wounded for our transgressions, [he was] bruised for our iniquities:
the chastisement of our peace [was] upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.
All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way;
and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

Isaiah 53:4 through 6

What I Have Learned and Ways I Have Grown This Week!

*Before we hear your questions dear ones!
Let's take a few minutes to review what you have read last Sabbath from Part 1 of our Lesson entitled,
"In Pilate's Judgment Hall" Part 9
in our study book *The Desire of Ages!

Raise your hands dear ones!

When Pilate gave Jesus up to be scourged and mocked, he thought to excite the pity of the multitude. He hoped they would decide that this was sufficient punishment. Even the malice of the priests, he thought, would now be satisfied. But with keen perception the Jews saw the weakness of thus punishing a man who had been declared innocent. {Next Slide Please}

Continuing:
They knew that Pilate was trying to save
the life of the prisoner,
and they were determined that Jesus should not be released.

To please and satisfy us,
Pilate has scourged Him,
they thought,
and if we press the matter
to a decided issue,
we shall surely gain our end.
{DA 735.2}

Pilate now sent for Barabbas to be brought into the court. He then presented the two prisoners side by side, and pointing to the Saviour he said in a voice of solemn entreaty, “Behold the Man!” “I bring Him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in Him.” {DA 735.3}

There stood the Son of God, wearing the robe of mockery
and the crown of thorns.

Stripped to the waist,
His back showed the long,
cruel stripes, from which the blood flowed freely.

His face was stained with blood, and bore the marks of exhaustion and pain;
but never had it appeared more beautiful than now.
The Saviour's visage was not marred before His enemies.

{Next Slide Please}

The Desire of Ages, p.735

Continuing:
Every feature expressed gentleness and resignation and the tenderest pity for His cruel foes. In His manner there was no cowardly weakness, but the strength and dignity of long-suffering. In striking contrast was the prisoner at His side. Every line of the countenance of Barabbas proclaimed him the hardened ruffian that he was. {Next Slide Please}

Continuing:
The contrast spoke
to every beholder.
Some of the spectators were weeping.

As they looked upon Jesus, their hearts were full of sympathy.

Even the priests and rulers were convicted that

He was all that
He claimed to be.

{DA 735.4}

The Roman soldiers that surrounded Christ were not all hardened; some were looking earnestly into His face for one evidence that He was a criminal or dangerous character. From time to time they would turn and cast a look of contempt upon Barabbas. It needed no deep insight to read him through and through.
{Next Slide Please}

Continuing:
Again they would turn
to the One upon trial.
They looked at the divine sufferer with feelings of deep pity.

The silent submission of Christ stamped upon their minds the scene, never to be effaced until they either acknowledged
Him as the Christ,
or by rejecting Him
decided their own destiny.
{DA 735.5}

Pilate was filled with amazement at the uncomplaining patience of the Saviour. He did not doubt that the sight of this Man, in contrast with Barabbas, would move the Jews to sympathy. But he did not understand the fanatical hatred of the priests for Him, who, as the Light of the world, {Next Slide Please}

The Desire of Ages, p.736

Continuing: had made manifest their darkness and error. They had moved the mob to a mad fury, and again priests, rulers, and people raised that awful cry, “Crucify Him, crucify Him.” At last, losing all patience with their unreasoning cruelty, Pilate cried out despairingly, “Take ye Him, and crucify Him: for I find no fault in Him.” {DA 736.1}

Entitled, "God's Ideal for Man"
Pages 365. 1 - 366. 1 Margin....*

Mark 4:2 (KJV)

And he taught them many things by parables,
and said unto them in his doctrine,

JNN- Jesus Name above All Name

Greatest Teacher

Pages 228. 1 - 228. 6

Margin...

“The religion of Christ never degrades the receiver. It never makes him coarse or rough, discourteous or self-important, passionate or hardhearted. On the contrary, it refines the taste, sanctifies the judgment, and purifies and ennobles the thoughts, bringing them into captivity to Jesus Christ.” {CT 365.1}

God's ideal for His children is higher than the highest human thought can reach. The living God has given in His holy law a transcript of His character. The greatest Teacher the world has ever known is Jesus Christ; and what is the standard He has given for all who believe in Him? "Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect." Matthew 5:48. As God is perfect in His high sphere of action, so man may be perfect in his human sphere.” {CT 365.2}

Continuing with our quotes:

“The ideal of Christian character is Christlikeness. There is opened before us a path of continual advancement. We have an object to reach, a standard to gain, which includes everything good and pure and noble and elevated. There should be continual striving and constant progress onward and upward toward perfection of character. . . .
{CT 365.3}

Without the divine working, man can do no good thing. God calls every man to repentance, yet man cannot even repent unless the Holy Spirit works upon his heart. But the Lord wants no man to wait until he thinks he has repented before he takes steps toward Jesus. The Saviour is continually drawing men to repentance; they need only to submit to be drawn, and their hearts will be melted in penitence.
{CT 365.4}

{Continuing on the next slide}

Continuing with our quotes:

"To man is allotted a part in this great struggle for everlasting life--he must respond to the working of the Holy Spirit. It will require a struggle to break through the powers of darkness, and the Spirit works in him to accomplish this. But man is no passive being, to be saved in indolence. He is called upon to strain every muscle and exercise every faculty in the struggle for immortality, yet it is God that supplies the efficiency. No human being can be saved in indolence.

The Lord bids us, "Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able." Luke 13:24. "Wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: because strait is the gate, and narrow the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it." Matthew 7:13, 14. {CT 366.1}

“Up and Doing, little Christians”

Children Activity Book Year 2 Quarter 4 – Lesson 4 – Page 104
SonLight Education Ministry Homeschooling from the Bible

1). Up and doing, little Christian,
Up and doing while ‘tis day;
Do the work the Master gives you,
Do not loiter by the way;
For we all have work before us,
You, dear child, as well as I;
Let us seek to know our duty,
And perform it cheerfully.

2). Up and doing, little Christian,
Gentle be, and ever kind;
Helpful to thy loving mother,
E’en her slightest wishes mind.
Let the little children love you
For your care and harmless play;
And the feeble and more willful,
Help them by your kindly way.

3). Patience, self-control, young Christian,
No cross look or angry word;
Follow Him who died to save you.
Follow Jesus Christ your Lord.
Help the suffering and needy,
Help the poor whom Jesus loves;
Tell the sinner of the Saviour,
Who still lives to bless, above.

4). Up and doing, little Christian,
Trust not to thyself alone,
But work out thine own salvation,
Through the blood of God’s dear Son,
Jesus loves you, little Christian,
Turn not from His love away;
But go forth and do His bidding;
Up and doing while ‘tis day.

Our Especial Music is entitled,

193 - "Savior, Teach Me"

1. Saviour, teach me day by day,
Love's sweet lesson to obey,
Sweeter lesson cannot be,
Loving Him who first loved me.
2. With a child's glad heart of love,
At Thy bidding may I move,
Prompt to serve and follow Thee,
Loving Him who first loved me.
3. Teach me I am not my own,
I am Thine, and Thine alone;
Thine to keep, to rule, to save
From all sin that would enslave.
4. Love in loving finds employ,
In obedience all her joy;
Ever new that joy will be,
Loving Him who first loved me.
5. Teach me thus Thy steps to trace,
Strong to follow in Thy grace.
Learning how to love from Thee,
Loving Him who first loved me.

“So, in all ages, angels have been near to Christ's faithful followers. The vast confederacy of evil is arrayed against all who would overcome; but Christ would have us look to the things which are not seen, to the armies of heaven encamped about all who love God, to deliver them.
