Our Tiny-Tots Song

569 – Pass Me Not, O Gentle Savior

Praise The Lord

Sing A Joyful Song

- 1). Pass me not, O gentle Savior,
hear my humble cry;
while on others thou art calling,
Do not pass me by.

Refrain: Savior, Savior, hear my humble cry;
while on others thou art calling,
do not pass me by.

- 2). Let me at thy throne of mercy find a sweet relief,
kneeling there in deep contrition;
help my unbelief. [Refrain]
- 3). Trusting only in thy merit, would I seek thy face;
heal my wounded, broken spirit,
save me by thy grace. [Refrain]
- 4). Thou the spring of all my comfort, more than life to me,
whom have I on earth beside thee?
Whom in heaven but thee? [Refrain]

Opening Prayer-request one of the little ones to give prayer.

*It's Story time!
For our precious Tiny Tot's

Gather around little ones!

This section of our study was inspired by the Lord for all His precious little jewels.
Our book selection is entitled,
“The Story of Jesus”
Chapter 15 - At the Passover Supper
Part 4

By: [Adapted from EGW material] (1896, 1900)

Narrated by
Our Dear Brother Graves

The Bible verse for our lessons are taken from the book of:
John 13:13 (KJV)

Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for [so] I am.

John 13:14

If I then, [your] Lord and Master, have washed your feet;
ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

John 13:15

For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

John 13:16

Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord;
neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.

John 13:17

If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

Chapter 15 – “At the Passover Supper” Part 4

Continuing: There was another cause of trouble. At a feast it was the custom for a servant to wash the feet of the guests, and on this occasion preparation had been made for the service.

The pitcher of water, the basin, and the towel were there, ready for the feet-washing.

But no servant was present, and it was the disciples' part to perform it. {SJ 97.1}

But each of the disciples thought that he would not be a servant to his brethren.

He was not willing to wash their feet.

So, in silence they had taken their places at the table. {SJ 97.2}

Jesus waited awhile to see what they would do. Then He Himself rose from the table. He girded Himself with the towel, poured water into the basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet. He had been grieved by their contention, but He did not reprove them by sharp words. He showed His love by acting as a servant to His own disciples.

When He had finished, He said to them: {SJ 97.3}

(Next Slide)

So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet.

John 13:14

Continuing:

“If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example that ye should do as I have done to you.”

John 13:14, 15. {SJ 97.4}

In this way Christ taught them that they ought to help one another. Instead of seeking the highest place for himself, each should be willing to serve his brethren. {SJ 97.5}

The Saviour came into the world to work for others. He lived to help and save those who are needy and sinful. He wants us to do as He did. {SJ 97.6}

The disciples were now ashamed of their jealousy and selfishness. Their hearts were filled with love for their Lord and for one another.

Now they could give heed to Christ's teaching. {SJ 97.7}

13 – Healings

- 1:35 And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed.
- 1:36 And Simon and they that were with him followed after him.
- 1:37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All [men] seek for thee.
- 1:38 And he said unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for therefore came I forth.
- 1:39 And he preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out devils.

Memory Verse

Matthew 5:6 (KJV)

Blessed [are] they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness:
for they shall be filled.

Character Quality

Health or Healthfulness vs Conflict
Health or Healthfulness is a harmonious state of complete physical, mental and spiritual well-being.

Nature

Water Helps Feed Us

If they do not have enough water, what happens to the plants? They dry up and die. We need plants for our food. So God sends the blessings of the rain to water the earth and help the plants to grow and produce food. What a blessing that is to the health of our life. What a blessing it is when the “Water of Life” feeds us spiritually through the Word. He helps good thoughts to grow and produce good fruit!

“And the Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not” (Isaiah 58:11).

Jesus’ life was, and is, a blessing to all who seek Him for healing from sin. The “Water of Life” will satisfy the desire of those who “hunger and thirst after righteousness” (Matthew 5:6). “And it shall come to pass, if ye shall hearken diligently unto my commandments which I command you this day, to love the Lord your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul, that I will give you the rain of your land in his due season, the first rain and the latter rain...” (Deuteronomy 11:13-14).

Remind

1. As you work together as a family, let your chores remind you of your lesson.
2. Practice praying as you do your chores. Ask God to teach you lessons as you work. Notice the water contained in the fresh fruits and vegetables as you prepare them for breakfast or lunch.
3. As you water the garden, remember how the “Water of Life” produces the fruit of righteousness.

Reinforce

1. Observe water!
2. Practice rising early to pray as Jesus did.
3. Collect pictures of fresh fruits and vegetables to put on the bulletin board.
4. For individual activities, stories, and poems, use the booklet entitled, Children’s Bible Activity Book for this quarter. Say your memory verse!

Apples

Apples are about 85% water.
They contain vitamins A and C, potassium, and pectin.

The maturing plant can remind how the faith of the leper grew.

The leper
finally reaches Jesus and is healed.

Remarkable Parent Food

“It was in hours of solitary prayer that Jesus in His earth life received wisdom and power. Let the youth follow His example in finding at dawn and twilight a quiet season for communion with their Father in heaven. And throughout the day let them lift up their hearts to God. At every step of our way He says, ‘I the Lord thy God will hold thy right hand... Fear not; I will help thee’ (Isaiah 41:13). Could our children learn these lessons in the morning of their years, what freshness and power, what joy and sweetness, would be brought into their lives!” (Education 259)

Giant Bromeliad Flowers

“Nature is filled with spiritual lessons for mankind. The flowers die only to spring forth into new life; and in this we are taught the lesson of the resurrection. All who love God will bloom again in the Eden above. But nature can not teach the lesson of the great and marvelous love of God. Therefore, after the fall, nature was not the only teacher of man. In order that the world might not remain in darkness, in eternal spiritual night, the God of nature met us in Jesus Christ. The Son of God came to the world as the revelation of the Father.

He was that “true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.”

We are to behold “the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.”

“Cover With His Life”*

*Hymnal
#412*

1). Look upon Jesus, sinless is He;
Father, impute His life unto me.
My life of scarlet, my sin and woe,
Cover with His life, whiter than snow.

{Refrain}

3). Longing the joy of pardon to know;
Jesus holds out a robe white as snow;
“Lord, I accept it! Leaving my own,
Gladly I wear Thy pure life alone.”

{Refrain}

2). Deep are the wounds transgression has made;
Red are the stains; my soul is afraid.
O to be covered, Jesus, with Thee,
Safe from the law that now judgeth me!

{Refrain}

4). Reconciled by His death for my sin,
Justified by His life pure and clean,
Sanctified by obeying His word,
Glorified when returneth my Lord.

{Refrain}

Refrain: Cover with His life, whiter than snow;
Fullness of His life then shall I know;
My life of scarlet, my sin and woe,
Cover with His life, whither than snow.

John 19:22 (KJV)

Pilate answered, What I have written I have written.

Psalms 22:16 (KJV)

For dogs have compassed me:
the assembly of the wicked have enclosed me: they pierced my hands and my feet.

Psalms 22:17 (KJV)

I may tell all my bones:
they look [and] stare upon me.

Psalms 22:18 (KJV)

They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.

Psalms 22:19 (KJV)

But be not thou far from me,
O LORD: O my strength,
haste thee to help me.

Psalms 69:20 (KJV)

Reproach hath broken my heart;
and I am full of heaviness:
and I looked [for some] to take pity,
but [there was] none;
and for comforters,
but I found none.

Psalms 69:21 (KJV)

They gave me also gall for my meat;
and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

The Desire of Ages, p.745

Continuing:

The priests saw what they had done, and asked Pilate to change the inscription.

They said,

“Write not, The King of the Jews; but that He said, I am King of the Jews.”

But Pilate was angry with himself because of his former weakness, and he thoroughly despised the jealous and artful priests and rulers.

He replied coldly, “What I have written I have written.”

{DA 745.3}

A higher power than Pilate or the Jews had directed the placing of that inscription above the head of Jesus.

In the providence of God it was to awaken thought, and investigation of the Scriptures.

The place where Christ was crucified was near to the city. Thousands of people from all lands were then at Jerusalem, and the inscription declaring Jesus of Nazareth the Messiah would come to their notice.

It was a living truth, transcribed by a hand that God had guided.

O the depth of the riches
both of the wisdom and knowledge of God!
how unsearchable [are] his judgments,
and his ways past finding out!

Romans 11:33

In the sufferings of Christ upon the cross prophecy was fulfilled. Centuries before the crucifixion, the Saviour had foretold the treatment He was to receive.

He said,

“Dogs have compassed Me: the assembly of the wicked have enclosed Me: they pierced My hands and My feet. I may tell all My bones: they look and stare upon Me. They part My garments among them, and cast lots upon My vesture.”

Psalm 22:16-18.

The Desire of Ages, p.746

The prophecy concerning His garments was carried out without counsel or interference from the friends or the enemies of the Crucified One.

To the soldiers who had placed Him upon the cross, His clothing was given. Christ heard the men's contention as they parted the garments among them.

His tunic was woven throughout without seam, and they said, "Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be."

{DA 746.1}

Let's learn another scripture song together, dear ones, from the book of John Chapter 15 verse 13 through (KJV)! Margin...

This Scripture Song memory verse is entitled, "Greater Love Hath No Man Than This" will be sung by Acapella

The background of the slide is a vibrant purple and white floral design. It features large, detailed purple flowers with green leaves and stems, interspersed with smaller, stylized purple flowers and delicate swirl patterns. The overall aesthetic is soft and elegant, with a focus on the color purple.

Greater love hath no man than this,
that a man lay down his life for his friends.

In another prophecy the Saviour declared,
“Reproach hath broken
My heart; and
I am full of heaviness:
and I looked for some
to take pity,
but there was none;
and for comforters,

Continuing:

To those who suffered death by the cross, it was permitted to give a stupefying potion, to deaden the sense of pain. This was offered to Jesus; but when He had tasted it, He refused it.

He would receive nothing that could becloud His mind.

His faith must keep fast hold upon God.

This was His only strength. To becloud His senses would give Satan an advantage.

{DA 746.2}

The Desire of Ages, p.746

The enemies of Jesus vented their rage upon Him as He hung upon the cross. Priests, rulers, and scribes joined with the mob in mocking the dying Saviour.

At the baptism and at the transfiguration the voice of God had been heard proclaiming Christ as His Son.

Again, just before Christ's betrayal, the Father had spoken, witnessing to His divinity. But now the voice from heaven was silent. No testimony in Christ's favor was heard. Alone He suffered abuse and mockery from wicked men.

{DA 746.3}

“If Thou be the Son of God,”
they said,
“come down from the cross.”

“Let Him save Himself,
if He be Christ,
the chosen of God.”

In the wilderness of temptation Satan
had declared,

“If Thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.”

Margin...“Our growth in grace, our joy, our usefulness,--all depend upon our union with Christ. It is by communion with Him, daily, hourly,--by abiding in Him, --that we are to grow in grace. He is not only the Author, but the Finisher of our faith.

It is Christ first and last and always. He is to be with us, not only at the beginning and the end of our course, but at every step of the way.” {SC- Step to Christ 69.1}
