Our Tiny-Tots Song

572 – Give of Your best to the Master

Praise The Lord

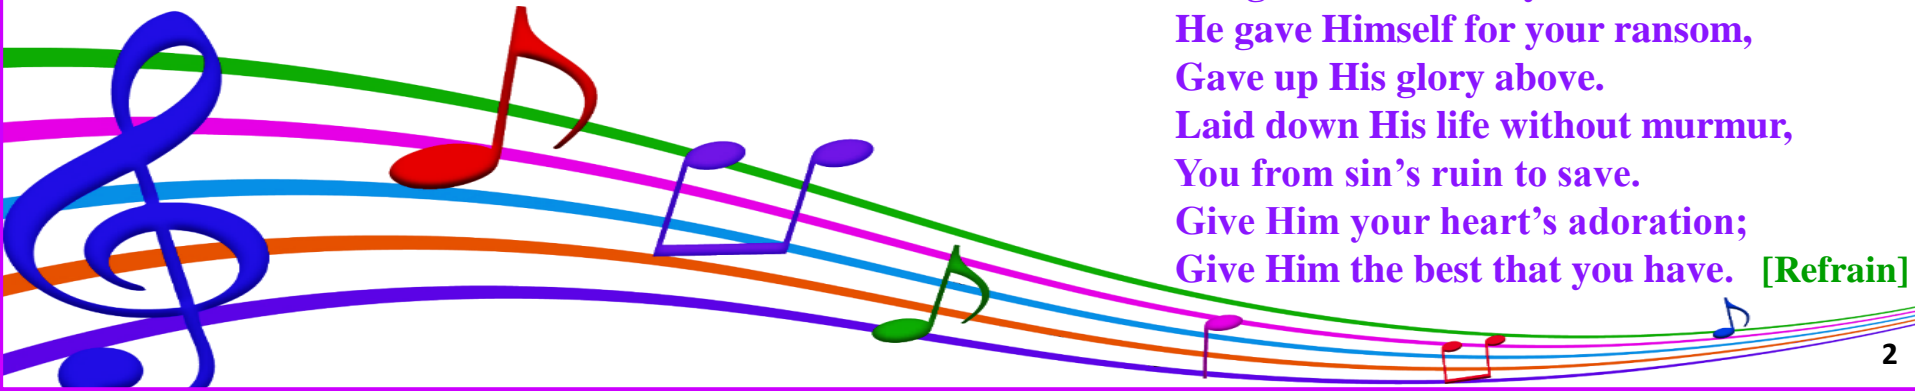

Sing A Joyful Song

1). Give of your best to the Master;
Give of the strength of your youth.
Throw your soul's fresh, glowing ardor
Into the battle for truth.
Jesus has set the example,
Dauntless was He, young and brave.
Give Him your loyal devotion;
Give Him the best that you have.

Refrain: Give of your best to the Master;
Give of the strength of your youth.
Clad in salvation's full armor,
Join in the battle for truth.

2). Give of your best to the Master;
Give Him first place in your heart.
Give Him first place in your service;
Consecrate every part.
Give, and to you will be given;
God His beloved Son gave.
Gratefully seeking to serve Him,
Give Him the best that you have. [Refrain]

3). Give of your best to the Master;
Naught else is worthy His love.
He gave Himself for your ransom,
Gave up His glory above.
Laid down His life without murmur,
You from sin's ruin to save.
Give Him your heart's adoration;
Give Him the best that you have. [Refrain]

Opening Prayer-request one of the little ones to give prayer.

A woman with dark hair and a yellow headband, wearing a red long-sleeved shirt and a purple skirt, is reading a yellow book titled "THE STORY of JESUS!". She is pointing upwards with her right hand. In the background, two children, a girl and a boy, are sitting on a large purple flower. They are both holding their hands to their ears, as if listening intently. The scene is set in a garden with many purple and white flowers, green leaves, and butterflies. The background is a light blue sky with white clouds. The entire scene is framed by a decorative border of flowers and leaves.

It's Story time!

This section of our study was inspired by the Lord for all His precious little jewels.
Our book selection is entitled,
“The Story of Jesus”
Chapter 18 – Before Annas, Caiaphas, and the Sanhedrin

By: [Adapted from EGW material] (1896, 1900)

Narrated by
Our Dear Brother Graves

The Bible verse for our lessons are taken from the book of:

John 18:12 (KJV)

Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him,

John 18:13 And led him away to Annas first; for he was father in law to Caiaphas, which was the high priest that same year.

John 18:20 Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.

John 18:21 Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

John 18:22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

(Next Slide)

Chapter 18 – “Before Annas, Caiaphas, and the Sanhedrin”

Jesus was followed from the garden of Gethsemane by the hooting mob. He moved painfully, for His hands were tightly bound, and He was closely guarded. {SJ 113.1}

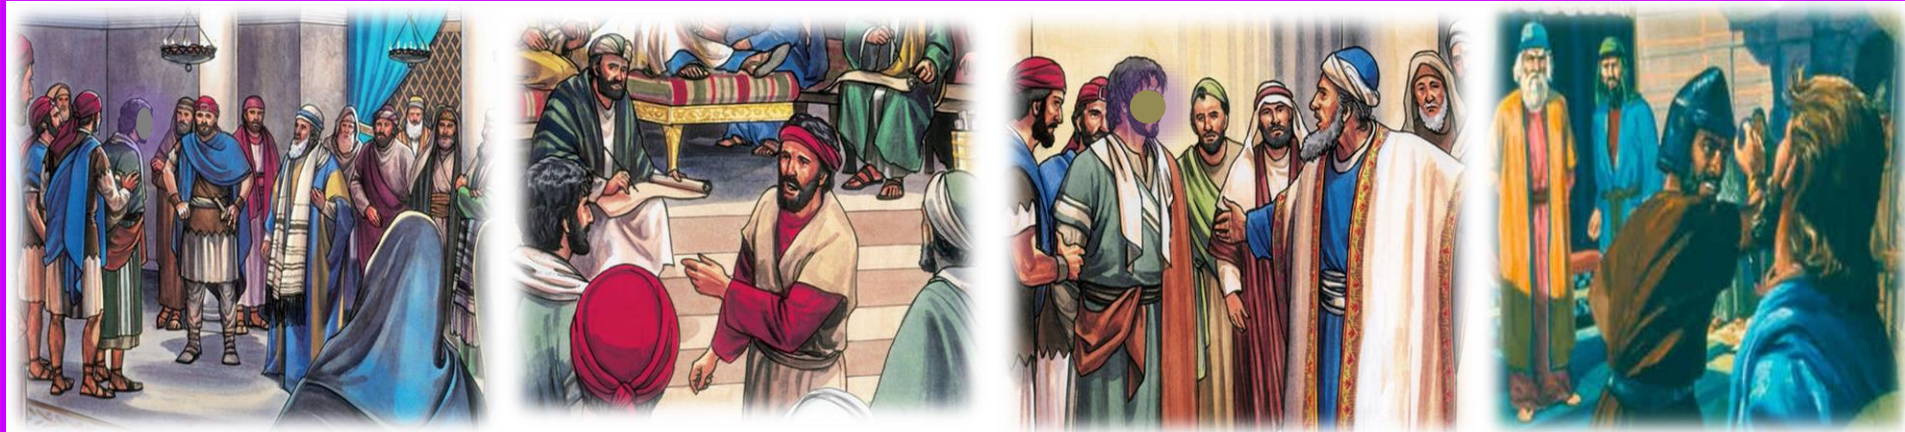

He was taken first to the house of Annas, who had formerly been the high priest, but whose place was then filled by his son-in-law, Caiaphas. The wicked Annas had requested that he might be the first to see Jesus of Nazareth a bound captive. He hoped to draw from Him some evidence by which to secure His condemnation. {SJ 113.2}

With this in view he questioned the Saviour with regard to His disciples and His teachings. Christ answered: {SJ 113.3}

“I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.” {SJ 113.4}

(Next Slide)

Continuing: Then, turning upon the questioner, He said, “Why askest thou Me? Ask them which heard Me, what I have said.” John 18:20, 21. {SJ 113.5}

The priests themselves had set spies to watch Christ and report His every word. Through these spies they knew of His sayings and of His works at every gathering of the people He had attended. The spies had sought to entrap Him in His words, that they might find something by which to condemn Him. So the Saviour said, “Ask them which heard Me.” Go to your spies. They have heard what I have said. They can tell you what My teaching has been. {SJ 113.6}

The words of Christ were so searching and pointed that the priest felt that his prisoner was reading his very soul. {SJ 114.1}

But one of the servants of Annas, thinking that his master was not treated with proper respect, struck Jesus in the face saying: "Answerest Thou the high priest so?" {SJ 114.2}

Next Sabbath we will be reviewing our first part of our lesson entitled, “Before Annas, Caiaphas, and the Sanhedrin” in our Tiny Tot’s Lesson book “The Story of Jesus” April 20, 2024.

Our Bible verse is taken from the book of Luke Chapter 11 (KJV)

2 – Teach Us to Pray

- 11:2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.
- 11:3 Give us day by day our daily bread.
- 11:4 And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.
- 11:5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves;
- 11:6 For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?

Character Quality

Reverence vs Disrespectfulness

Reverence is respect and affection for God and spiritual things.

“Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary: I am the Lord”
(Leviticus 19:30).

Nature

The Skin of Mammals

Mammals have a covering of skin and hair. Hair is warm and light. It protects mammals from cold and water. Hair can be long and thick, curly or shaggy. Other mammals have very short hair. Hair is attached to the skin in such a way that it can warn mammals and people if something is crawling on them. It can remind us how prayer can help protect us. When we pray angels will warn us when we are in danger of being “bitten” by “that old serpent called the Devil” (Revelation 12:9).

There are two basic layers of skin, the dermis (inner layer) and the epidermis (outer layer.) The arteries and veins that supply the skin with blood are in the dermis. The epidermis is the covering that protects the dermis and makes things such as: hair, horns, claws, nails, and hoofs. Some mammals have very beautiful coverings of fur. But have you ever seen how they look without their natural covering? Sometimes people take their long-haired dogs to have them shaved for the summer months. Suddenly they are transformed into pitiful looking creatures. This is probably how we look to the angels since we lost our robe of light. God, in kindness, covered us with artificial clothing so that the shame of our nakedness does not appear. “...When thou seest the naked...cover him...” (Isaiah 58:7).

Just as hair is a protective covering so is skin. Elephants have skin that is 1-1-1/2 inches (2.5 to 3.8 centimeters) thick in some places. No mosquito can bore through all that! God gave the elephants just the protection they need as they break through the dense jungles where they live. Their tough hides shield them against the sharp thorn trees and bushes that would tear a thinner skin. It can remind us of the sturdy armor of Christ's righteousness that we put on every morning when we pray.

The skin of mammals contains glands. Mammary glands of the female produce milk for the young nurslings. God has kindly provided His word for our nourishment. "As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby" (I Peter 2:2). Each day we, in reverence, need to ask for a daily supply of spiritual food. Glands (sebaceous) give off a lubrication oil for the hair and skin. By this we are reminded how God desires that "...the anointing oil of the Lord is upon you..." (Leviticus 10:7). Prayer brings the oil of grace into our lives. Sweat glands help the mammal cool off and eliminate some liquid wastes. God is kind to provide mammals with a built-in air-conditioning system. The scent glands of some mammals, like skunks and dogs, are used for self-defense or communication and identification. Some people are attracted by the aroma of Christ that comes into our lives through prayer and others are repelled by it. “For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish: To the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life...” (II Corinthians 2:15-16). As the wonderful scent of freshly baked bread draws us to partake, so does the “Bread of Life” draw us to His spiritual banquet table, the Bible, that we might eat. With reverence we take each bite.

Remind

1. As you work together as a family, let your chores remind you of your lesson.
2. Bake bread, or rolls, and be reminded of your lesson.
3. As you give your pets a bath let it remind you of the cleansing power of prayer.

Reinforce

1. Look for mammals! Use your guide book to identify them. Watch for animals gathering and storing their “daily bread.” “That thou givest them they gather...” (Psalm 104:28).

2. If you have not learned how to make a good loaf of bread you might like to do so this week.

3. Make many loaves of bread and wrap with a special Bible verse tucked inside. Set up (with permission) a proper table at the local market and sell them. When expenses are taken out you could send Bibles to another country that need the Word.

4. As you clean up after a meal, “Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.” Wasting food shows that we do not recognize God as the Giver. We do not deserve any food that God gives to us so we should be thankful for each bite.

5. Learn to can or dry fruit. One of God’s ways of providing daily food is by giving us more than is needed during the harvest season. In putting up this extra food for the winter months we are following God’s counsel in Proverbs 6:6-8.

Remarkable Parent Food

“The figure which Christ used was a familiar one to the Jews. Moses, by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, had said, ‘Man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the Lord.’ And the prophet Jeremiah had written, ‘Thy words were found, and I did eat them; and thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart’ (Deuteronomy 8:3; Jeremiah 15:16). The rabbis themselves had a saying, that the eating of bread, in its spiritual significance, was the study of the law and the practice of good works; and it was often said that at the Messiah’s coming all Israel would be fed. The teaching of the prophets made plain the deep spiritual lesson the miracle of the loaves. This lesson Christ was seeking to open to His hearers in the synagogue. Had they understood the Scriptures, they would have understood His words when He said, ‘I am the bread of life.’ Only the day before, the great multitude, when faint and weary, had been fed by the bread which He had given. As from that bread they had received physical strength and refreshment, so from Christ they might receive spiritual strength unto eternal life. ‘He that cometh to me,’ He said, ‘shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.’ But He added, ‘Ye also have seen me, and believe not.’” (The Desire of Ages 386)

Creators and Saviour

Let us learn about Eclipses.

Let's
use our listening ears little ones!

Solar Eclipses

“For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light; the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine.”

Isaiah 13:10

solar eclipse

www.britannica.com

When the moon passes directly between the Sun and the Earth, a solar eclipse occurs (illustration 1). The moon gets in the way of the Sun's light coming toward us and the sky gets dark for a little while.

Sometimes, like the moon, a person can block another person's view of God by the way he lives while proclaiming to be a Christian. Be discerning!

The gases of solar wind come from an area above the surface of the Sun. This area is called the corona. It is like a golden crown that circles the Sun. It may be seen during a solar eclipse (illustration 2).

The gases of solar wind come from an area above the surface of the Sun. This area is called the corona. It is like a golden crown that circles the Sun. It may be seen during a solar eclipse (illustration 2).

During an eclipse the corona is called the Sun's crown. (This can call to mind the beauty of character Jesus shone upon this darkened world, from His babyhood to the cross.) During this time the Sun's beautiful corona can be seen faintly glowing around the dark area where the Sun and moon are lined up. The corona gives about as much light during an eclipse as a full moon. If the moon does not completely cover the Sun, it is called a partial eclipse. If the Sun is completely blocked out by the moon, it is called a total eclipse.

Remember, no one should ever look directly at the Sun, even at the time of an eclipse. It requires special equipment to watch an eclipse.

Eclipse

1

A solar eclipse takes place when the moon passes between the Sun and the Earth

The Sun's corona becoming visible during an eclipse reminds us that through the faith that eclipses the glory of earthly things "we see Jesus...crowned with glory and honour" (Hebrews 2:9). Remember how Jesus revealed His hidden glory to the three disciples that were with Him on the mount of transfiguration? A glory like that will be ours when He returns. "Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father" (Matthew 13:43). Christ's brightness was veiled when He was on Earth, and so it is in those in whom He dwells. But once in awhile the light shines forth like it did on the face of Anna the prophetess.

The moon, being smaller than the Sun, and yet being able to block out its light has an important spiritual parallel for us. Even the smallest sin can keep the light of Christ from reaching our souls. Self can blind us to greater things. Even a penny can hide the sight of the Sun if it is held close enough to the eye. What about us? What is closest to us, absorbing all our attention? Are we blinded by the treasures and pleasures of the world that eclipse things of infinite value? "What shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose" sight of Jesus? (Mark 8:36).

Solar eclipses speak to us of the work of Satan. He is always trying to come between the soul and God. He "hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them" (II Corinthians 4:4). But even though His glory is not seen by the world now, in the end "the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together" (Isaiah 40:5).

Our Lord is now rejected,
And by the world disowned,
By the many still neglected
And by the few enthroned
But soon He'll come in glory,
The hour is drawing nigh,
For the crowning day is coming

By and by.

1. Thought Questions

(1) Do you ever cause "a solar eclipse" by blocking out the life of Christ to those you come in contact with?

(2) How could you knowingly or unknowingly do this?

(3) How can you let the light of Jesus shine through you to your family or friends? List ways you can do this.
