

Our Tiny-Tots Song 196 - Tell Me the Old, Old Story

Tell me the old, old story
Of unseen things above,
Of Jesus and His glory,
Of Jesus and His love.
Tell me the story simply,
As to a little child;
For I am weak and weary,
And helpless and defiled.

Tell me the story softly,
With earnest tones and grave
Remember I'm the sinner
Whom Jesus came to save;
Tell me the story always,
If you would really be,
In any time of trouble,
A comforter to me. [Refrain]

1).

Refrain:

Tell me the old, old story; Tell me the old, old story, Tell me the old, old story Of Jesus and His love.

3). Tell me the same old story
When you have cause to fear
That this world's empty glory
Is costing me too dear;
Yes, and when that world's glory
Is dawning on my soul,
Tell me the old, old story:
"Christ Jesus makes thee whole." [Refrain]

The Bible verse for our lessons are taken from the book of: Matthew 26:15 (KJV)

And said [unto them], What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.

Matthew 27:3 Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

Matthew 27:4 Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What [is that] to us? see thou [to that].

Matthew 27:5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself.

Chapter 19 – "Judas" Part 2

The tall form of Judas was seen pressing through the startled crowd. His face was pale and haggard, and large drops of sweat stood on his forehead. Rushing to the throne of judgment, he threw down before the high priest the pieces of silver that had been the price of his Lord's betrayal. {SJ 121.3} He eagerly grasped the robe of Caiaphas, and begged him to release Jesus, declaring that He had done no wrong. Caiaphas angrily shook him off, and said with scorn: {SJ 121.4} "What is that to us? See thou to that." Matthew 27:4. {SJ 121.5} Judas then threw himself at the Saviour's feet. He confessed that Jesus was the Son of God, and begged Him to deliver Himself from His enemies. {SJ 121.6} (Next Slide)

Continuing: The Saviour knew that Judas did not really repent for what he had done. The false disciple feared that punishment would come upon him for his terrible deed; but he felt no real sorrow because he had betrayed the spotless Son of God. {SJ 121.7} Yet Christ spoke to him no word of condemnation.

He looked with pity upon Judas, and said: {SJ 121.8}

"For this hour came I into the world." {SJ 121.9}

A murmur of surprise ran through the assembly.

With amazement they beheld the forbearance of Christ toward His betrayer. SJ 122.1} Judas saw that his entreaties were in vain, and he rushed from the hall, crying: SJ 122.2} "It is too late! It is too late!" SJ 122.3}

He felt that He could not live to see Jesus crucified, and in despair went out and hanged himself. {SJ 122.4}

Our Bible verses for our Lesson in our topic "Mammals of the Bible" taken from:

3 - The Good Shepherd

And when he cometh home, he calleth together [his] friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost.

I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance.

Memory Verse

Genesis 1:28 (KJV)

And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

Character Quality

Care vs Indifference

Care is to have an interest and concern about another person as Christ cares about me.

Nature

Domestic Animals of the Bible

Domestic mammals are those living with or under the care of man. In Bible times wealth was determined by how many domestic animals a man owned.

God has invited man to have dominion "over every living thing that moveth upon the earth" (Genesis 1:28). In time man has tamed a number of mammals. (See James 3:7) Many have been brought into the service of man. True domestic mammals are those species that are tame and are taken care of by man.

- 1. As you work together as a family, let your chores remind you of your lesson.
- As you care for your pets remember how the shepherd cares for the sheep and especially how God cares for you.
- As your pets follow you around let it remind how some of the sheep followed extra close to the Shepherd because they were sure of his love.

Reinforce

- Look for mammals! Use your guide book to identify them.
- Visit a ranch or farm that has sheep, goats, or cattle.
- Find illustrations of sheep, goats, and oxen to put on your bulletin board.
- 4. Make a list of domestic mammals you have or that can be found in your area.
- As a family, offer to care for someone's children (lambs) if they have an emergency.
- Say your memory verse!

Remarkable Parent Food

"It is the work of the angels to come close to the tried, the suffering, the tempted. They labor untiringly in behalf of those for whom Christ died. When sinners are led to give themselves to the Saviour, angels bear the tidings heavenward, and there is great rejoicing among the heavenly host. 'Joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance' (Luke 15:7). A report is borne to heaven of every successful effort on our part to dispel the darkness and to spread abroad the knowledge of Christ. As the deed is recounted before the Father, joy thrills through all the heavenly host." (Acts of the Apostles 153-154)

TELL ME THE OLD, OLD STORY;
TELL ME THE OLD, OLD STORY,
TELL ME THE OLD, OLD STORY
OF JESUS AND HIS LOVE.

- 1). God sent His Son, they called Him Jesus,
 He came to love, heal, and forgive;
 He lived and died to buy my pardon,
 An empty grave is there to prove my Saviour lives. {Refrain}
- 2). How sweet to hold a newborn baby,
 And feel the pride, and joy He gives;
 But greater still the calm assurance,
 This child can face uncertain days because He lives. {Refrain}

Refrain:

Because He lives I can face tomorrow,
Because He lives all fear is gone;
Because I know He holds the future.
And life is worth the living just because He lives.

This Sabbath boys and girls, we will continue with part 6 of our lesson entitled, "In Joseph's Tomb" in our study book

The Desire of Ages!

John 5:39 (KJV)

Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

John 5:40 (KJV)

And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

John 2:19 (KJV)

Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

Matthew 20:18 (KJV)

Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death,

Matthew 20:19 (KJV)

And shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify [him]: and the third day he shall rise again.

James 2:19 (KJV)

Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble.

Continuing:

The mourning cries of the suffering ones brought home to thousands of minds the conviction that a great light had gone out of the world. Without Christ, the earth was blackness and darkness. Many whose voices had swelled the cry of "Crucify Him, crucify Him," now realized the calamity that had fallen upon them, and would as eagerly have cried, Give us Jesus! had He still been alive. {DA 776.3}

When the people learned that Jesus had been put to death by the priests, inquiries were made regarding His death. The particulars of His trial were kept as private as possible; but during the time when He was in the grave, His name was on thousands of lips, and reports of His mock trial, and of the inhumanity of the priests and rulers, were circulated everywhere. {Next Slide Please}

By men of intellect these priests and rulers were called upon to explain the prophecies of the Old Testament concerning the Messiah, and while trying to frame some falsehood in reply, they became like men insane. The prophecies that pointed to Christ's sufferings and death they could not explain, and many inquirers were convinced that the Scriptures had been fulfilled. {DA 776.4}

The revenge which the priests had thought would be so sweet was already bitterness to them. They knew that they were meeting the severe censure of the people; they knew that the very ones whom they had influenced against Jesus were now horrified by their own shameful work. These priests had tried to believe Jesus a deceiver; but it was in vain. {Next Slide Please}

Continuing:

Some of them had stood by the grave of Lazarus, and had seen the dead brought back to life. They trembled for fear that Christ would Himself rise from the dead, and again appear before them. They had heard Him declare that He had power to lay down His life and to take it again. They remembered that He had said, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." John 2:19.

Judas had told them the words spoken by Jesus to the disciples while on the last journey to Jerusalem: "Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn Him to death, and shall deliver Him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify Him: and the third day He shall rise again." Matthew 20:18, 19. {Please Slide Next}

Continuing: When they heard these words, they had mocked and ridiculed. But now they remembered that Christ's predictions had so far been fulfilled. He had said that He would rise again the third day, and who could say that this also would not come to pass? They longed to shut out these thoughts, but they could not. Like their father, the devil, they believed and trembled. {DA 777.1}

Continuing: Now that the frenzy of excitement was past, the image of Christ would intrude upon their minds. They beheld Him as He stood serene and uncomplaining before His enemies, suffering without a murmur their taunts and abuse. {Please Slide Next}

All the events of His trial and crucifixion came back to them with an overpowering conviction that He was the Son of God. They felt that He might at any time stand before them, the accused to become the accuser, the condemned to condemn, the slain to demand justice in the death of His murderers. {DA 777.2}

Dear Remnant Families, Boys, Girls, and Guests;

The questions for our lesson will be reserved for the next Sabbath after the review. So, dear ones, you will have one week to answer the questions, and it will be open mic. I'm looking forward to the participation of all our Dear Remnant families.

Have a Blessed and Peaceful Sabbath!
