Our Tiny-Tots Song

Praise The Lord

Sing A Joyful Song

Hymn #109

Marvelous Grace

- 1). Marvelous grace of our loving Lord.
Grace that exceeds our sin and our guilt!
Yonder on Calvary's mount outpoured
There where the blood of the Lamb was spilt.

Refrain: Grace, grace, God's grace,
Grace that will pardon and cleanse within
Grace, grace, God's grace,
Grace that is greater than all our sin!

- 2). Sin and despair, like the sea waves cold,
Threaten the soul with infinite loss;
Grace that is greater, yes, grace untold Points to the Refuge, the mighty Cross. [Refrain]

- 3). Marvelous, infinite, matchless grace, Freely bestowed on all who believe!
You that are longing to see His face,
Will you this moment His grace receive? [Refrain]

Jesus answered and said unto them,
Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

Matthew 20:18 (KJV)

Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death,

Matthew 20:19 (KJV)

Chapter 25 – “In Joseph's Tomb” Part 3

Continuing: Although the Jewish rulers had succeeded in putting Christ to death, they could not rest easy. They well knew of His mighty power. {SJ 151.1}

Some of them had stood by the grave of Lazarus, and had seen the dead brought back to life,
and they trembled for fear that Christ would Himself rise from the dead, and again appear before them. {SJ 151.2}

They had heard Him say to the multitude that He had power to lay down His life and to take it again.
{SJ 151.3}

(Next Slide)

Continuing: They remembered that He had said, “Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up” (John 2:19), and they knew that He was speaking of His own body. {SJ 151.4}

Judas had told them that Christ had said to His disciples on their last journey to Jerusalem: {SJ 151.5}

“Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn Him to death, and shall deliver Him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify Him: and the third day He shall rise again.”

Matthew 20:18, 19. {SJ 151.6}

Lesson 7 — Jesus Calms the Storm

Mark Chapter 4:37 (KJV)

And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

Mark 4:38 (KJV)

And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?

Mark 4:39 (KJV)

And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

Ephesians 4:15 (KJV)

But speaking the truth in love,

Character Quality

Obedience vs Willfulness

Obedience is compliance with God's commands done quickly and cheerfully.

Nature Whales

Whales are very powerful animals but they are also very gentle in their disposition. They remind us of Christ's character. He exercised the great power of God in stilling the storm and at the same time He acted gently toward his fearful disciples. "They read in His glance self-forgetful, tender love." (The Desire of Ages 335)

The whale was especially designed by the Creator to live in the water. It has some special body features that help it to survive in water.

The shape of a whale is such that helps it to swim freely through the water. Its powerful tail fins (flukes) are positioned on the sides of its tail. The whale can move itself through the water by moving its tail up and down. When moving fast a whale beats its tail up and down about two times in a second. One kind of whale, called a right whale, has been seen to use its tail for a sail. The whales raised their flukes from the water and set them against a strong on-shore wind. Their "sail-tails" would catch the wind and provide them a ride to shallow waters. Then they would turn around, swim back to the deep-water, and set sail again. They would sometimes spend an entire afternoon in this kind of activity which evidently is splendid fun for them.

The flippers also help in steering and keeping it in balance. The flippers are like arms for the whale. Mother whales are often seen swimming side by side with their young ones with their flippers touching—they are “holding hands!” The way they stay close together helps to protect the little one. It can remind us how the disciples did not need to be afraid with Jesus close by them.

Some toothed whales have strong muscles that give such power they can leap high out of the water and into the air. A killer whale (12,000 pounds [5,400 kilograms]) has been known to jump 20 feet (6 meters) into the air. Why do they jump? To give an alarm, or show their strength, or attract females. The young seem to jump in play! The jump of a large whale makes a very noisy splash. Gray whales often “spy hop,” which means they thrust their heads high out of the water so they can look around and see their location.

The whale needs strength to swim through stormy seas. This tells us about: "Those hardy fishermen who had spent their lives upon the lake, and guided their craft safely through many a storm; but now their strength and skill availed nothing. They were helpless in the grasp of the tempest, and hope failed them as they saw that their boat was filling." They needed the help of Jesus to be saved! "Lord, save us: we perish." "And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm." The waves obeyed their Master!

A whale's backbone, shoulder blades, and rib cage are similar to those of other mammals.

The whale has seven neck vertebrae, as do all mammals. These vertebrae are squeezed into short lengths or joined into one bone. This helps the head from moving about as a whale swims. It also joins the head and body together so it can move through the water with greater ease. When the church body (Christ's disciples) is joined to the head (Jesus) the church can work with greater ease. "But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ" (Ephesians 4:15).

Narwhal

The narwhal is a small to medium-sized whale that resembles the beluga. Besides its spotted pigmentation, however, it has one radically distinguishing characteristic: its tusk. Borne only by the male, this ivory “horn,” actually a twisted, overgrown tooth, may reach 9 feet in length. It is not known its use. Tragically, the uniqueness of the tusk has caused the narwhal to be over-hunted, and this unusual creature is now endangered.

Remind

1. As you work together as a family, let your chores remind you of your lesson.
2. As you shut windows before or during a big storm, remember “peace, be still.”
3. God made man to use his hands and feet to move and do physical work each day as a whale uses its fins to move through the water. When we do our chores, we are obeying God’s command to get exercise each day.
4. When you go shopping, stay close to your mother for safety, remembering how little whales swim next to their mothers. And remember to ask for Jesus’ protection, too.
5. When you feel “stormy” in your mind, pray for Jesus’ help to calm you down.

Reinforce

1. Look for mammals! Use your guide book to identify them.
2. Find pictures of whales to put on your bulletin board.
3. Read the story of Jonah and the whale from the book of Jonah.
4. Sing the hymn, "Peace, Be Still!"
5. Visit a large body of water during this week and take a boat ride if possible.
6. Say your memory verse!

Remarkable Parent Food

"It is a solemn thought that the removal of one safeguard from the conscience, the failure to fulfill one good resolution, the formation of one wrong habit, may result not only in our own ruin, but in the ruin of those who have put confidence in us. Our only safety is to follow where the steps of the Master lead the way, to trust for protection implicitly to Him who says, 'Follow me.' Our constant prayer should be, 'Hold up my goings in thy path, O Lord, that my footsteps slip not.'" (2 Bible Commentary 1004-1005)

GRACE, GRACE, GOD'S GRACE,
GRACE THAT WILL PARDON AND CLEANSE WITHIN
GRACE, GRACE, GOD'S GRACE,
GRACE THAT IS GREATER THAN ALL OUR SIN!

Our Opening Song is a Hymn entitled, “Before the throne of God Above”

#283

1). Before the throne of God above
I have a strong and perfect plea:
A great High Priest whose name is Love,
Who ever lives and pleads for me.
My name is graven on his hands,
My name is written on his heart.
I know that while in Heav'n he stands
No tongue can bid me thence depart,
No tongue can bid me thence depart.

2). When Satan tempts me to despair
And tells me of the guilt within,
Upward I look and see him there,
Who made an end of all my sin.
Because the sinless Saviour died,
My sinful soul is counted free,
For God the just is satisfied
To look on him and pardon me,
To look on him and pardon me.

3). Behold him there, the risen Lamb, My perfect, spotless righteousness,
The Great Unchangeable I AM, The King of Glory and of Grace.
One with Himself I cannot die; My soul is purchased by His blood.
My life is hid with Christ on high,
With Christ, my Saviour and my God,
With Christ, my Saviour and my God.

Matthew 28:20 (KJV)

Mark 16:16 (KJV)

He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned.

Mark 16:17 (KJV)

And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues;

Mark 16:18 (KJV)

They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

Mark 16:19 (KJV)

So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God.

Mark 16:20 (KJV)

And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with [them], and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.

Continuing:

Christ's words on the mountainside were the announcement that His sacrifice in behalf of man was full and complete.

The conditions of the atonement had been fulfilled; the work for which He came to this world had been accomplished. He was on His way to the throne of God, to be honored by angels, principalities, and powers. He had entered upon His mediatorial work.

Clothed with boundless authority, He gave His

The Desire of Ages, p.819

The Jewish people had been made the depositaries of sacred truth; but Pharisaism had made them the most exclusive, the most bigoted, of all the human race. Everything about the priests and rulers--their dress, customs, ceremonies, traditions—made them unfit to be the light of the world. {Next Slide Please}

Continuing:
They looked upon themselves,
the Jewish nation,
as the world.

But Christ commissioned His disciples to proclaim a faith and worship that would have in it nothing of caste or country, a faith that would be adapted to all peoples,
all nations,
all classes of men.

{DA 819.4}

The Desire of Ages, p.820

Before leaving His disciples, Christ plainly stated the nature of His kingdom.

He called to their minds what He had previously told them concerning it. He declared that it was not His purpose to establish in this world a temporal, but a spiritual kingdom.

He was not to reign as an earthly king on David's throne.

Again He opened to them the Scriptures, showing that all He had passed through had been ordained in heaven, in the councils between the Father and Himself. {Next Slide Please}

And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world
for a witness unto all nations;
and then shall the end come.
Matthew 24 verse 14

And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations;
and then shall the end come.

And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world
for a witness unto all nations;
and then shall the end come. (2 x)

Christ commissioned His disciples to do the work He had left in their hands, beginning at Jerusalem. Jerusalem had been the scene of His amazing condescension for the human race. There He had suffered, been rejected and condemned.

The land of Judea was His birthplace. There, clad in the garb of humanity, He had walked with men, and few had discerned how near heaven came to the earth when Jesus was among them. At Jerusalem the work of the disciples must begin.

{DA 820.2}

The Desire of Ages, p.820

In view of all that Christ had suffered there,
and the unappreciated
labor He had put forth, the disciples might have pleaded for a more promising field;
but they made no such plea.
The very ground where He had scattered the seed of truth was to be cultivated by the disciples, and the seed would spring up and yield an abundant harvest.

Continuing:
In their work the disciples would have to meet persecution through the jealousy
and hatred of the Jews;
but this had been endured
by their Master, and they were not to flee from it.
The first offers of mercy must be made to the murderers of the Saviour.
{DA 820.3}

The Desire of Ages, p.820

And there were in Jerusalem many who had secretly believed on Jesus, and many who had been deceived by the priests and rulers.

To these also the gospel was to be presented.

They were to be called to repentance.

The wonderful truth that through Christ alone could remission of sins be obtained was to be made plain.

While all Jerusalem was stirred by the thrilling events of the past few weeks, the preaching of the gospel would make the deepest impression. {DA 820.4}

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?
[shall] tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

Nay, in all these things (2x)
we are more than conquerors (2x) through him that loved us. (2x)

For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God,
which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
